Welcome Happy Wanderers

Today, we have pleasure in receiving the Happy Wanderers'—a great bunch of sportsmen, entertainers, journalists, businessmen, who give up their time to help raise money for deserving and needy causes. The Happy Wanderers were formed in 1975 by sports journalist Peter Tyers of the King & Hutchings Group (the same group as our own Harrow Observer). The team travel all over England, playing charity matches, taking part in testimonials and helping clubs in financial need.

The teams President is Portsmouth, and former Fulham, goalkeeper, Peter Mellor. Amongst its Vice-Presidents are Spurs defender John Lacy, Fulham's Les Strong, Surrey and England cricketer, Pat Pocock, and Martin Stevens, M.P.

Last year, the Happy Wanderers had their most successful season to date, raising £4,179, bringing their total over their first four years to about £11,000. The Happy Wanderers are also kindly donating an autographed football which together with a bottle from myself and other kind donations will be raffled. The draw will take place in the club after the game (to increase sales) and the winning numbers will be published in the Harrow Observer, the next home programme and notice boards. Welcome Happy Wanderers, may your visit to Lower Mead be enjoyable.
