OUR VISITORS TONIGHT

WEALDSTONE

THIS evening we turn our attentions to the London Challenge Cup, and it is our pleasure to extend a warm welcome to Wealdstone, our visitors in the first round of the competition.

Wealdstone, who compete in the First Division South of the Southern League, are one of the clubs who were called upon to play in the Preliminary Round. In that round they were at home to Barnet, also Southern Leaguers, and their 4-1 victory in that match a fortnight ago qualified them for this evening's first round tie.

The participation in the Challenge Cup of clubs from outside the Football League has become a feature of the competition in recent years. Five of the eight ties in this season's first round are between clubs in the Football League and opponents from outside.

Orient are the current holders of the Challenge Cup, but it was by only a 2-1 margin that they beat Enfield in the Final last May. And the strength of the challenge from outside the League is underlined by the fact that Orient's victims in the semi-final were Dagenham.

HARD BLOW

In fact, we sustained a hard blow to our own pride in losing in the Semi-final to Enfield last season. We were due to meet our Enfield neighbours on this ground, but it was agreed to play the match at Enfield Stadium.

The tie resulted in a 1-1 draw, and in the replay, also played at Enfield, we were beaten 3-2. In the earlier rounds last season we recorded home wins over Brentford (2-1) and Queen's Park Rangers (2-0). The game against Brentford was won in extra time.

We look forward to a good game this evening, and naturally hope Spurs will qualify for the next round. We feel it is time we added another Challenge Cup triumph to our record. The last time the trophy was won by Spurs was in season 1970-71. We then defeated Wimbledon on this ground by the only goal of the match, scored by Roy Woolcott.

WELCOME, TERRY

We welcome Terry Dyson, outside-left in our League and F. A. Cup-winning "double" team of 1961, back to White Hart Lane this evening as a member of the Wealdstone team.

Other members of the team with Football League experience are Eric

Burgess, the captain, whose past clubs include Colchester; Eddie Presland and John McCormick, both formerly with Crystal Palace; and Chic Brodie, who played for Brentford for years and last season played against Spurs for Margate in the F.A. Cup.

George Duck, who has played for Millwall and Southend, is a Tottenham man. His home is only a short distance from this ground.

On Saturday Wealdstone lost their Southern League match 3-2 at Ramsgate.

AT LAST!

Spurs Res. 2, Swansea City Res. 1

At last a Spurs team has won a match on this ground this season! After two defeats and two draws in home Combination matches, the Reserves bagged both points at the fifth attempt in beating Swansea 2-1 on Saturday.

We had to work hard for our win and for more than 20 minutes were a goal behind. Wyndham Evans headed through for Swansea in the 27th minute after the visitors' goal had had a number of narrow escapes.

Danny Clapton hooked the ball over after five minutes and later was robbed of a goal by two great saves, within seconds of each other, by goalkeeper Peta Bala'c. Then Gary Mabee shot wide following a good move by Mike Dillon and Chris McGrath.

Spurs equalised in the 49th minute when Keith Osgood drove in a hard, low shot from a free-kick by Joe Peck. A few minutes later McGrath scored what proved to be the winner from a pass by John Margerrison.

Team: Lee; Osgood, Anderson, Naylor, Collins, Peck, McGrath, Clapton, Mabee (sub. Jones), Margerrison and Dillon.

FINAL CRUNCH

Liverpool 3, Spurs 2

We were close to breaking our long sequence without a win on Liverpool's ground on Saturday, but the final crunch came when Chris Lawler's shot in injury time bounced in off the post to leave us beaten 3-2.

Martin Peters had kept his head well to give Spurs an early lead with an angled shot, but Liverpool finished off a spell of heavy pressure with an equaliser from Lawler.

We were forced to fight a defensive action, but Martin Chivers regained the lead for Spurs soon after half-time. In the 75th minute Alec Lindsay levelled matters for Liverpool from the penalty spot after Pat Jennings had moved too quickly in saving the first kick from Emlyn Hughes.

We were then under siege, and Jennings, who had sustained badly bruised lower ribs in the first half, made a couple of fine saves before Lawler dealt us the final blow. Team: Jennings; Evans, Knowles, Pratt, England, Beal, Gilzean (sub. Kinnear), Perryman, Chivers, Peters and Holder.

Q.P.R. Youth 2, Spurs Youth 3

The Youth team improved their record in the South-East Counties League on Saturday morning by beating Queen's Park Rangers at South Ruislip.

Rangers scored an early goal and added a second in a scrappy first half.

Our players staged a fine recovery in the second half, however, and in spite of a compulsory reshuffle following a recurrence of Doug Howe's thigh injury, we scored the three goals needed to snatch both points.

The two goals that put us level came within a spell of three or four minutes. First Konrad Powley scored from a pass by Roger Gibbins, and the latter then equalised after Martin Robinson had flicked on a cross by Noel Brotherston.

A few minutes from the end Gibbins jumped for a high ball, and Powley finished off the ensuing scramble by running it into the net.

Team: Cranstone; Smith, I., Stead, Keeley, Cegielski, Powley, Brotherston, Bacon, Gibbins, Robinson and Howe (sub. D. Gillett).
