ON THE BALL

with
Brian Hall

THIS is our first home game since the last round of the F.A. Trophy when we beat Welling United. Can you remember that far back? Very rarely do I single out individuals from the dressing room in public, but I do feel that Andy Graham's goal is worthy of recognition in that game. It was a pleasure to watch, and very similar to the ones that I used to score regularly!

Yet again I applaud and thank our Supporters Club for supplying the squad with a new set of presentation track suits. I am quite aware that you have not seen them yet, but we are just waiting to see if there is a real special occasion when we sincerely hope we can show them off, and show our appreciation to you. I leave you to guess when we hope that special day might be, but no prizes for correct answers although there are some clues in this article. My thanks to Steve Marshall and the boys for helping us to put the pitch back into good condition by treading down divots after the game, which cut down preparation time enormously. It normally takes George Perkins two days to "tread down" after a game, but with your help only about 1 hour. I therefore assume that some of you must have very large feet, or that you walk faster than George, but then most people do! Many many thanks again - let's hear you as usual today, and help us to get to that special track-suit day. (Clue 1).

Our Chairman Mr. David Morrill recently took the players to Blazers Night Club for a belated Christmas party on 25th February, and with a late change of fixtures we managed to play Harrow Borough in the Middlesex Senior Cup Semi-Final on the 26th February. Despite an extremely late night the side turned in an excellent professional display and put us into the final against Enfield. Well done boys, and a Merry Christmas to Mr. Morrill . . .

Last Saturday's 1-0 win at Maidstone keeps us in touch with the never-to-be-forgotten championship race. We must retain our impetus to make it a super year at Wealdstone.

A warm welcome to Paul Cotter whom we have just signed from Hendon, and who played in place of Bob Iles at Maidstone on Saturday with a clean sheet on his debut.

However, today is Trophy day, and of course our result is vital. I want to travel down Empire Way on the 11th May and hear the Street Traders shouting "Get your rosettes here - sorry no track-suits governor, Wealdstone Football Club have bought them all!" (Clue 2).

FRICKLEY – FAMOUS FOR COALS, GOALS AND BRASS

by Colin Pope

WE are delighted to greet the Directors, Players and Supporters of Frickley Athletic for this afternoon's vital quarter-final match in the FA Trophy. We congratulate Frickley on having a splendid season, and apart from today's game being of vital importance, it will surely be one of the hardest of the entire season. Much is at stake, for neither club has yet achieved the dizzy heights of a Trophy semi-final, let alone a place at Wembley!

Brian Hall saw Frickley inexplicably lose at home 3-1 to Maidstone on Tuesday, but came away firmly convinced that the better side had lost – especially when it is remembered that the Yorkshire side missed two penalties!! In fact Brian tells me what a really good side our opponents are, and as their secretary, Mr. Bates informs me they play better away from home (and realising that we ourselves are also perhaps better away!) then today should be a real thriller!

In Gary Hooley, Frickley boasts the League's top goalscorer, with a sensational total of 31 goals so far, including 22 in the league, remembering that Frickley have a lot of league games in hand, Gary is obviously a lethal marksman.

Frickley Athletic is based a South Elmsall, in West Yorkshire, the centre of the largest coalfield in Britain, and in fact three of the team are miners. The area has another claim to fame, for the world-famous Grimethorpe Colliery Brass Band hails from the area, while the Carlton Main Frickley Colliery Band often tours abroad, and sells a lot of long-playing records.

If today's match ends in a draw, then the replay will be at Frickley on Tuesday, in which case, we shall entertain Yeovil Town here on THURSDAY. If there is a definite result, Yeovil will be our visitors on TUESDAY. And don't forget that we are at home to Weymouth next Saturday.

As many of you will have read, Fred Deamus, the Club's vice-chairman is no longer with us, having assumed chairmanship of Ruislip Town in the Hellenic League, and as a result, has resigned from our Board of Directors. Fred came to Lower Mead Stadium in 1979 as chairman, and played a huge part in keeping the Club going at that time, when we had serious financial problems, and a year or so later stepped down in favour of David Morrill. We sincerely thank Fred, and his wife Val for their valued support over the last six years, and wish Fred every success at Ruislip.

Which brings me to another point which will interest a lot of our older supporters. A guest here today is none other than former Director and Treasurer Harry Benjamin, a really great character who did a tremendous job for Wealdstone for many years before business circumstances forced his resignation. The very first thing Harry does on a Sunday is to see how Wealdstone got on, and his infectious banter on the team coach is missed to this very day! Oddly enough Harry, who works at Harefield, has recently become involved with Harefield Utd. of the Isthmian League, who are, I understand, hopeful of getting former Stone Terry Dyson to become manager. Terry was recently sacked by Borehamwood and has been helping out another ex-Wealdstone man Eddie Presland at Hendon.

Paul Cotter, a 23-year-old goalkeeper from Hendon, who did so splendidly for us at Maidstone last Saturday, has now been signed by Brian Hall as cover for Bob Iles, who went into hospital on Tuesday night with a hand injury. Bob's recovery might not be complete for today – hence Paul being named in goal.

We are, of course, without Gary Donnellan and Lee Holmes today, both suspended – Gary for his sending off at Barrow, and Lee for amassing too many points!

It's a Fixture Chief's Nightmare!

A lot of our supporters have thought it most odd that, in view of the backlog of our fixtures, we have not had any midweek games this past fortnight. Well, let me tell you that secretary Peter Braxton has been burning a lot of midnight oil in recent weeks trying desperately to get a midweek fixture but has met with refusals everywhere he has tried. In fact at this time of the season, and especially this year when the bad weather caused such chaos, Peter's job is a nightmare . . .

For instance he had finally succeeded in fixing up a Gola League match at Barnet last Tuesday only to hear at the virtual 11th hour that Herts County FA had stepped in and ordered Barnet to play a County cup game. This sort of thing happens quite often, and in recent weeks the Clubs we had been hoping to play were engaged in either County Cup matches, Bob Lord Trophy ties or other league fixtures.

As it happens the only fixture not yet arranged is against Scarborough at home, and Barnet away. Peter hopes to finalise these shortly.

COLIN POPE

Time to act

by Toby Jackson

In a season when both Frickley and Wealdstone will amass a certain pride of achievement, not least for progress in the F.A. Trophy, it is indeed unfortunate that both clubs must also look back on their share of unprecedented crowd problems.

While Chelsea Chairman Ken Bates has alternated between defence and condemnation of his own resident hooligan element, everyone involved with the Non-League game has a clear duty to ensure that this sickness of the modern game is not allowed to spread beyond the Football League into our circles.

Earlier in the season our friends from Frickley had to endure the unwanted presence of an unruly party from Stalybridge Celtic. A mobile faction purposely selected a game of some importance to travel to with the specific intention of violent disruption, and succeeded in their aim.

At Barrow two weeks ago, our loyal supporters numbered in their midst their own moronic minority. Willing adversaries were found in a delightful group of wine-swigging, knife-brandishing louts from the Cumbrian town who embarrassed the majority of hospitable Barrow fans by their presence. This quaint scene was further enhanced by the most inconsistent referee I have seen in 24 years of Non-League soccer whose handling of the game did absolutely nothing to reduce tension on the terraces; and by some unique positioning by the local constabulary reminiscent of Scottish goalkeepers.

If the problem of hooliganism cannot be easily solved on crowded Football League terraces, surely it can be stamped out at Non-League level where a family, social atmosphere has always been prevalent. Club funds would not stretch to employment of Ken Bates' suggested trained "Hooligan Squads" to put these thugs behind bars where they belong, nor would our attendances justify such action. Yet these louts stick out more than Andy Gray's elbows - glazed expressions from a mixture of alcohol and an absence of substance between the ears; a vocabulary that seldom stretches beyond four letters; little interest in the game in general - these people do not (or cannot) read any of the Non-League publications and view an impending ruck with more enthusiasm than the progress of the club that has the misfortune of their allegiance.

It is time for Club officials, Supporters Clubs, local police and, on the pitch, referees and players, to adopt a more responsible attitude, and with the belated backing of a lenient judiciary to ensure that the Non-League game stays clear of this cancer of modern society before it kills our source of pleasure, as it is already killing soccer at Senior and International level.

GOLA GATES UP

WITH at least nine clubs still serious contenders, the race for the Gola League championship looks like maintaining excitement right up to the last matches of the season. It is indeed building up to a spectacular finale!

One of the most heartening aspects is that so far Gola League attendances are up by 8% compared with last season. With 70% of the current season completed, the average 'gate' so far this season is 858 - an increase of 60% per match compared with the 1983/84 season.

Thirteen of the 20 clubs in membership of the League both this season and last are showing an increase. The biggest gains are by Yeovil (up 197), Weymouth (179), Kettering (168), Wealdstone (140). Yeovil (1,347), Worcester (1,286) and Kettering (1,185) have the highest average attendances.

Dagenham have re-signed striker John McCombe, their leading scorer last season, while player manager John Ryan, who parted company with Cambridge Utd. last month, has signed for Maidstone. Weymouth striker Shaun Penny has moved to Southern League Forest Green Rovers.

Best Wishes to Reg and Jean

HEARTIEST congratulations to former Club Director Reg Johns on the occasion of his marriage today. Reg marries Jean this morning and fully expects to attend today's big game, with many of the wedding guest. Reg who is chairman of Harrow Sports Council, says he didn't exactly arrange a morning ceremony so he could see the match but it's certainly most convenient! Happily Jean is also a regular visitor to Lower Mead. We wish the happy couple every future happiness.

CLUB SHOP NEWS

New Journals In Stock

AFTER a New Year of unprecedented interruptions, this week's milder weather will hopefully give us a good run of fixtures and the chance to make up for the lost points from postponed games that have pushed us down the Gola table recently. Today, however, the League must again be pushed into the background, but gladly for the opportunity of a F.A. Trophy Quarter-Final and the chance of a stab at a Wembley appearance. Good luck to all the team today – you can do it, lads!

There is plenty of reading material on sale in the Club Shop today to pass away the pre-match and half-time minutes. The new edition of Non-League Digest (No.13) has arrived, accompanied by the new Pyramid publication (No.14). Due to our erratic home fixtures, there are still several back-copies of Pyramid on sale too. Also new in are the new Programme Monthly (No.48) and West Middlesex Review for March. Today is also the last chance to buy a useful publication, professionally produced, called "The Travelling Supporter's Guide to Football League Clubs". The book gives all sorts of details about all Football and Scottish League clubs and is a very handy volume for just £2.00.

Programme enthusiasts should remember the 1st Harrow Borough Programme Fair that takes place tomorrow morning at 11 a.m. Six top dealers will be on show at Earlsmead. It is also a good time to consider purchasing one or two of our Wealdstone F.C. official programme binders to tidy up all those piles of programmes at home. A new delivery of binders has arrived after a sell-out with the initial batch, so call in at the shop today and convert your collection into an organised set of volumes.

Lapel badge devotees may be interested in new acquisitions from Hayes, Merthyr Tydfil, Alvechurch, Leek Town and Chorley. A new updated list is also available upon request from me in the shop.

It was interesting to see in the recent Coventry City v. Chelsea programme that our Stuart Pearce is lying fourth in their local newspaper's Player of the Year award – he has obviously settled in well. Stuart was also listed as third top scorer with two goals, behind Michael Gynn on three and Terry Gibson on twelve, having scored as many goals in fifteen appearances as team-mate Cyrille Regis! Mark Hateley watch out!!

TOBY JACKSON

Jack Minty Dies

It is with deep regret that we record the death of Jack Minty, one of our very longest-serving supporters, who followed our fortunes right to the bitter end. Jack has followed us through thick and thin, and will be sadly missed.

Mascot Peter is 12 Today

WE are delighted to welcome as our mascot today a young ardent supporter, like his dad, who always stands under the clock! A big hand to Peter Goldsmith, who is Head Boy of Longfield Middle School, and who, most appropriately, is actually celebrating his 12th birthday today! (Well, we hope he will be celebrating – a lot will depend on today's result!)

Peter has supported Wealdstone for 8 years and plays for Rayners Lane FC's under 13's side. He's also a cricket fan and receives coaching with Middlesex Colts. He's also keen on tennis, swimming, athletics and squash, so is a real all-rounder. Peter's father Norman, will not tempt fate by altering his usual place to watch the game so will be found under the clock as usual!

Through a mix-up with the printer, we were very upset at our last game that our mascot for the match – none other than our own Steve (Polly) Perkin's son – did not receive the usual mention in the programme. Sorry about that Stephen, and we are going to make amends to you!

SUPPORTERS CLUB NOTES

GOOD afternoon everyone and a very warm welcome to our visitors, Frickley Athletic F.C. None of us will need to be reminded that today's match is of massive importance to both sides - I am sure that the lads will do their utmost to grab the key to the final stages of a dream Wembley appearance.

The Maidstone result did us no harm at all last week - what a superb effort in "injury time" from Andy ("What's all the fuss about") Graham!! I was pleased to be able to meet the secretary and chairman of Maidstone United Supporters Association during half-time. They have some interesting ideas relating to the formation of a Gola League Supporters Association, particularly with the aim of exchanging ideas on fund-raising schemes. The only unfortunate aspect to last Saturday was the unscheduled mystery tour of Southern England given to those supporters who travelled on the coach!! Still, at least we arrived before the kick-off . . . (just).

"Long Ball Down The Middle", the Supporters Club Magazine should be on sale in the shop today, priced 50p. Our Editor, Mr. Khanna, apologises for the slightly lower production quality of this latest issue - this was necessary to reduce costs as much as possible. Our thanks to Mr. Khanna.

Recent S.F.C. WEALDSTONE results have been as follows:

24 FEB v OLD BISTONLIANS (Junior Cup) W 4-1 (2-0) McKay, Harvey 2, Allen

3 MAR v ZANDAAM RESERVES (A) League W 4-2 (2-0) Davies, O'Brien (pen), McKay, Harvey

10 MAR v OLD ECOBIANS (H) League W 5-0 (4-0) O'Brien 2, Parks, Cross, O.G.

This Sunday, SFC take part in their own Quarter final in the Junior Cup at Ealing Hospital. Hughie tells me this will be a very tough match. Good luck!!

HERE WE GO YELLAS!!
