ON THE BALL

with
Brian Hall

MANY congratulations to Wealdstone Supporters Club F.C. (better known as S.F.C. Wealdstone) on winning their division of the Marathon League. How do you manage to win it so early? I sincerely hope we please you just as much by winning our league championship, and then we can have a double or maybe even a treble celebration, because if you make a note in your diary we are in some cup competition or something on the 11th May. I am not sure what it is all about just yet, but I am informed that we are playing at a ground in the Wembley area against a side from Boston. So if you are not too busy, why not pop along and incidentally if you can arrange it, bring a few thousand mates with you. Many congratulations again.

It was great news to me to hear that Graham Carr from Nuneaton was appointed manager at Northampton recently. I know that he intends to be the first club to try it with part time players, and I personally feel that certainly at 4th division and possibly 3rd division level, this surely makes economic sense. I sincerely hope that he succeeds because that then becomes a wedge in the door to football league status. Telford United went to the 5th round of the F.A. Cup having demolished four league clubs on the way, and indeed our visitors this evening Frickley, were unfortunate to lose 1 nil away at Darlington, who incidentally are on the fringe of promotion to the 3rd division. This is not idle gossip, I saw the Darlington v. Frickley match myself, and there is no gap between 4th division and Gola League clubs even with part time players. I think the time is right for some new blood in the Football League, and unless the facts are faced up to, the pyramid system counts for nothing. Everyone must have a further goal to aim for. I am looking to Graham Carr to carry the flag for the Gola League, and hope that by his example he can show just what can be achieved.

May I remind you that on Sunday, 19th May we have that special dinner for vice-presidents, supporters, and players etc., and being as 1985 seems to have been just a little bit special I would like to see as many of us as possible in the Wealdstone family celebrate together.

This is the last home game this season, and therefore the last programme with my last "On the Ball" article. There are so many people, too numerous to individually mention, who have helped me, backed me, argued with me, and still remained loyal for the last two years. Life has not been perfect and football is unpredictable, but at the end we still come shining through. So to those people, and you know who you are, thanks for just being around.

Sports Writing is Easy

by Will Bull
Harrow Observer Reporter

"Sports writing is easy. You sit in front of a typewriter until little drops of blood run down your forehead," a noted American football columnist once said.

In a way, he was right. A sport reporter's story can only be as good as the event he is covering. If a team is not producing the goods he will sweat blood to get something decent down on paper.

Happily, that has not been the case at Wealdstone this season.

As Stones rolled on towards the Gola League title and FA Trophy glory it has been relatively easy to find the superlatives (some may say cliches) to record their historic march on the Double.

Although the minority who read the Harrow Observer wearing their blue and yellow blinkers may disagree, I believe Wealdstone's successes this season have received the space they deserve on the sports pages, given the restrictions we work under.

Of course we would like to give them more space, but the sad fact of life is that simply is not enough room.

What people must realise is that the number of sports pages is limited and space is further reduced by adverts. If Wealdstone were the only club we were covering they would get the great majority of that space. But they are not. I suppose in a way we are spoilt by the number of clubs and other sports in our area. They all want their achievements recorded in their local paper and quite rightly so.

As a local newspaper we have a duty to report the fortunes of all our local clubs. Bearing that in mind, Wealdstone have had a fair crack of the whip. You only have to go through the back copies of the Harrow Observer to see that Wealdstone have dominated the soccer pages.

JOCK LAW TROPHY Player of the Season Award

THE Jock Law Trophy will be presented to the Supportes Club player of the season before kick-off tonight.

SUPPORTERS CLUB NEWS

GOOD EVENING to all of our supporters and a special welcome to our friends from Frickley Athletic F.C.

Our last home match of season 1984/85!! And what a season it has been!! Quite apart from the "big-one" on May 11th and the coming league championship battles, we can look back on this season with pleasure and a great deal of pride. For me, the highlights were the 4-0 win at Worcester City, the victory at Altrincham, the win at Harrow Borough and the truly great performance in the Trophy against Frickley. The Trophy win at Enfield wasn't bad either!!

Our grateful thanks go to Nick Woolford for his recent donation to our raffle prizes. Future donations from supporters would, of course, be more than welcome!

As this is the last opportunity to say so, may I, on behalf of the Committee, thank everyone who has helped us in our many tasks this season. Much "behind the scenes" work goes on during the days leading up to games; a very special thank you is particularly extended to our super ladies who spend hours labouring in the Tea Bars. A special mention to Bob Dugard who spends more time in the Cash & Carry at South Ruislip than most full-time shop owners, and to Pete Worby who "commutes" a ridiculous number of times from Southampton and back with his wife Julie - just to exercise the privilege of working the P.A. system!! A special "commendation" is, I feel, due to our rising star on the committee - young Matthew Ansell who has worked tirelessly in various capacities this season. Finally may I extend congratulations to Toby Jackson on the excellence of the set-up in the Club Shop. Toby really does shame us all with his quiet professionalism and total dedication to the task in hand.

But we have been rewarded in the best possible way - Wembley beckons!! Let's get everyone involved, get tickets early, and make it a day to remember for the rest of our lives!! Best wishes and good luck to Brian Hall and the players for the rest of the season. See you all at Wembley!!

NICK DUGARD, Secretary.

CLUB SHOP NEWS

GOOD EVENING everyone and welcome to this our last home match of the 1984/85 season. These notes are written before the result of Sunday's Bath v. Enfield game is known, but if Enfield won and we managed to obtain three points at Kidderminster on Monday night, then we could be in a position to clinch the title tonight! However, bearing in mind Enfield's League form of late, not to mention our own, I imagine the destination of the Championship trophy will not be decided until our visits to Kettering and Barnet have been made. According to our good friend Mr. McCluskey of Enfield the title will not be coming here, but I don't really think we need put too much importance on the comments of one whose own team is performing with even greater inconsistency! It does seem strange that the title seems destined to go to the team that plays least badly at present rather than to a side that performs with the confidence and ability normally attributed to League champions. There seems to be no side on a convincing "title challenge run" and one wonders if the incentive for taking the title is great enough. In every other League of any consequence there is either promotion or a European place to play for, yet all we have is the financial reward from generous sponsors and a one-in-a-million stab at the Football League which not everyone wants anyway!

In the Club Shop tonight there are still a few copies of an excellent new booklet entitled "A Guide to Non-League Football". These have been produced by Sutton United and give precise ground locations for all the clubs in the Gola, Isthmian, Southern and Northern Premier Leagues, as well as local radio frequencies and recommended pubs. The booklet is very good value at £1.50 and resolves the problems of finding some grounds based on a "three minutes from the town centre" guide.

Only half our consignment of "Pyramid" magazines arrived on Saturday, so hopefully the remainder will be available for tonight's game. There are still a few copies of April's "West Middlesex Review" available and also Rothmans Non-League annuals reduced by £3.00 each to clear. It does not look as if "Non-League Digest" will appear again this season if at all in the future. It will be a great shame if this commendable effort suffers the same fate as "Netstretcher" and "Around Football", but perhaps a Non-League magazine needs an economist as its editor (like "Pyramid") to find any kind of financial viability.

Also in stock tonight are a small number of Wealdstone FC key cases, a new souvenir that we shall have along with key fobs in greater quantities for the start of next season. These sell at 90p and are real leather with the Wealdstone club crest in four colours on the outside.

Despite having a dig at Mr. McCluskey above, it was nice to receive good luck wishes from the Enfield Supporters Club for our Wembley trip, especially as they have their own problems at present following a break-in at their club shop. I'm not sure exactly how the thief intends to dispose of £1,400 worth of Enfield souvenirs - perhaps he was counting on a Trophy Final appearance and a stall in Empire Way! Nevertheless I'm sure that the club would appreciate knowing if any of the missing merchandise finds its way over this side of the county.

A final reminder about the 11th International Football Programme Fair to be held on Saturday 1st June at the Connaught Rooms, Gt. Queen Street, London WC2 (3 minutes walk from Holborn Tube Station). The Fair runs from 11 am to 4 pm and entrance is 60p on the day with thousands of top dealer's programmes to browse through and purchase from pre-war to current day.

Lastly, I would like to extend thanks to all those who have contributed during the season to the running of the Programme Section of the Club Shop. Special thanks go to the many supporters who have donated programmes; to Ray Comer for his collection; to Robert Oke and Steve Brewer (in the absence of Watford, Watford Reserves or Watford Youth matches!) for their help behind the counter; to Martin Allen for his "away programme delivery service" for the four away games I have missed this season; to Paul Keen and John Southgate for generous contributions of Chelsea and Q.P.R. programmes respectively throughout the season, and to Graham Jones and Steve Johnson for their co-operation on match days.

Have a good summer everybody! See you all at Wembley!
