WEALDSTONE v BRISTOL MANOR FARM

Emirates FA Cup 3rd Qualifying Round replay Tuesday October 8 2019, KO 7.45pm

Written in Stone

CUP FEVER

Welcome to Grosvenor Vale tonight for some good old FA Cup floodlit action.

We extend a very warm welcome to our visitors Bristol Manor Farm FC, their management team, officials, players and supporters. We hope you enjoy your brief stay with us this evening.

As a point of order, should you be in any doubt, there will be a period of 30 minutes extra time played following the regulation 90 minutes if tonight's game ends in a draw. Should the scores still be level after extra time, penalties will be taken to determine which team will progress to the 4th qualifying round.

Finances are always tight as we continue to operate a sustainable football club. As always at this time of the season, we are looking for supporters or businesses to step forward as sponsors to ensure we remain competitive on the pitch. We have a range of Matchday and Ball Sponsorship packages available to suit all pockets, as well as our ever popular Kit Sponsorship that allows you to show your support for your favourite player. Full details of all these packages, which can be customised to your individual requirements, can be found in the pages of this very (hastily compiled) programme.

Volunteering is also a fantastic way to help the club. There are still a number of vacancies within both the Club and Supporters Club and I know they would be glad to hear from you if you can spare some time.

Enjoy the game

"I'm really enjoying playing for the Stones ...and I might be here into 2020, it's out of my hands"

There were a few nervous Stones fans at the beginning of August when the news emerged that our brilliant long-serving keeper Jonathan North would be missing for the big kick-off against Dartford.

But cometh the hour, cometh the big man. A chance scouting trip by Dean Brennan to watch Norwich's reserve side turned up trumps when he managed to convince City to send their outstanding young keeper Aston Oxborough on a four-month-long loan to Grosvenor Vale.

And now, ten weeks on, the young Norfolk lad has firmly established himself as a bit of a Wealdstone folk hero as the clean sheets and the wins started rolling in.

"I'm really enjoying it and expect to be here until early January" he said on Sunday. "But it's out of my hands - I just do what the club tell me to and it's possible I may stay for the season unless a higher-ranked club want to take me on loan". There has only been one glitch - the opening goal against Havant when his kick out was blocked. "Yes, that was awful at the time, but I saw Hugo Lloris do something similar on Match of the Day that evening which made me feel a bit better. It can happen to even the top keepers"

How did the loan deal come about? I'm not sure to be honest. Norwich told me about it and said that Wealdstone needed a goalkeeper whilst Northy was injured. It was a good opportunity for me to come and play some senior matches so we went for it.

Were you in the youth team at Norwich?

From what age? And have you always been tall?! Yes I've been at Norwich since the age of 10. I've seen everyone come and go and it's good to see Norwich doing so well again (back in the Premier League) and in such good hands. Yeah I've always been the tallest in my age groups growing up.

What's the favourite/most memorable game you've ever played in and why?

Probably my England U-16 debut. We beat Denmark 3-1. That was a proud moment, not much beats that.

Have you always been a goalkeeper? I used to play as a centre back. Then quickly established I didn't like running so switched to goalkeeper.

What was the most memorable save you've made?

I made a double save from a free kick against Wolves for Norwich U-23's. It was heading towards the top corner and I got a hand to it, but the spin on the ball meant it was travelling back towards towards goal so I had to quickly get up and claw it away for a second time. It was nominated for U-23 save of the season 2017/2018.

But I was very happy about my save for Wealdstone against Oxford too!

Whereabouts do you live? I live in Wyndham, just outside Norwich.

How do you travel to training and games? I drive to training and games. It takes me two and a half hours so it takes a bit of sacrifice but it's worth it.

What's the best team you've ever played in? Probably the England team I was involved in at U16 and U17 level.

Who were the standout players in that

Save of the season? Aston gets across acrobatically to claw away this Oxford City freekick on September 7, somehow flipping the ball over the crossbar. Awesome!

The Oxford players can't believe The Ox has kept it out.. with good reason. Northy reckoned he should've held it side? Alexander Arnold of Liverpool, Tom Davies for Everton, while Reece Oxford and Kaylen Hinds were also very good players who were at West Ham and Arsenal at the time.

Did you know anything about WFC before you signed? Not really, I knew about the Raider but that's it. The kit man Tony has filled me in with a bit more knowledge about the club though.

What are your impressions of the club, the stadium, the pitch etc? I've been really impressed. The pitch is lovely and the stadium fills up very well on a match day. It's great to play in front of a lot of vocal fans as that's a new experience for me.

Wealdstone were held to a 0-0 stalemate on their travels against Bristol Manor Farm in the third qualifying round of the Emirates FA Cup on Saturday afternoon.

The best chances for the Stones fell to defender Connor Stevens who hit the post before half-time, while top scorer Ross Lafayette's penalty was saved in the second period as the Farm earn a replay. The home side were handed the first opportunity of the game within the opening five minutes as Joe Tumelty's shot from the edge of the box was on-target but did not trouble Stones' keeper Aston Oxborough. Wealdstone's first half-chance fell to in-form Dennon Lewis in the 18th minute. After good link-up play between Nick Arnold and Jacob Mendy on the right, the latter squared it to Lewis in the box but was unable to convert. The home side started brightly but the Stones were starting to gain ascendancy in the game. Following Jerome Okimo's cross from the left in the 25th minute, Mendy attempted a trademark left-footed strike from outside the penalty area which flew wide. Stones full-back Michee Efete was gifted an opportunity after winning the ball high up the pitch, his curling effort from the left couldn't find the near-post. An onslaught of attacks from the National League South leaders included efforts from winger Lewis, centre-half Okimo and midfielder Billy Clifford were blocked and saved by Farm' keeper Ben John. John was called into action 10 minutes before the half-time break when Danny Green's winding run resulted in another save from the shot-stopper. The Farm had a chance to break the deadlock three minutes before the interval when Jamie Bird was set through on-goal but Stevens was able to chase down and intercept the strike. Wealdstone came with an instant reply to score before half-time themselves when Stevens was picked out at the back-post by Billy Clifford's corner and Stevens' effort cannoned off the inside of the post but went agonisingly wide.

The game reached half-time and the Stones appeared to grasp a stronger grip on the game after Stevens' close-effort almost broke the deadlock, but the game was goalless.

There were early problems for Bristol Manor Farm at the start of the second half caused by Lewis at the start of the second half, as his curling effort from the edge of the box was awkwardly saved by John. Just shy of the hour-mark and the Stones were awarded a penalty after Stevens was hacked down in the 18-yard box. After various altercations, Lafayette's penalty was low to John's right and he was equal to the effort to keep the tie goalless.

The home side almost took advantage of the penalty miss moments later when Jamie Adams' drive from the right dragged away from the far-post. Lafayette persisted to find an opener and he glanced Stevens' cross from the right across goal and just wide of the near-post.

The most threatening player in the second half for the Stones was Lewis and after chipping the ball over John in the area, he was denied by a fantastic goal-line clearance by Steve Kingdon with less than 10 minutes to go.

KEVIN WILKS

Fan in the Stand

'My first game was when we relegated in 1981. It wasn't an unlucky omen!'

Whereabouts do you live Kevin?

Bovingdon (near our arch rivals Hemel Hempstead)

When was your first Wealdstone game?

It was in 1981 at Lower Mead, against AP Leamington in the old Alliance Premier League (now National League). We lost 2-1 and it was disastrous as that was the day we were relegated to the Southern League. But I was taken in by the crowd and the intimate atmosphere in what I always regarded as our iconic home stadium. I still have the match programme from that day (pictured right). We bounced straight back, winning the Southern League and I was hooked on Stones from that day onwards!

Are you working, and where? I run a Financial advice practice near home in Bovingdon

Who or what persuaded you to come to a game? I remember as a 14 year old reading the Stones match reports in the Harrow Observer and dragged my mate down to the ground to check out the team. We were both hooked and hardly missed a home game for years afterwards.

Do you follow another team? Yes a recently suffering Man Utd Fan, qualified as such as I was born in Surrey where the biggest section of the fan club hale from!!!

Do your family follow another team? My son is a Chelsea fan and my Dad is a proud Welshman supporting any of the Welsh clubs. My wife and daughter support.... shopping!

Is it easy to fit football in with your work/family commitments? Not always but at the beginning of each season I usually block out the diary with as many fixtures as I think I can get to and make them known to the family!

What is the main attraction of watching the Stones? A number of things really. I've always enjoyed the camaraderie of the Stones fans, along with the opportunity to meet and chat to the players, management and board after matches. And then there are the legendary away days when the Stones travel in numbers and make a noise. To this day it still amazes me seeing and hearing such brilliant support for the team away from home, often matching the home support for numbers.

Do you prefer non-League over League football? Definitely. Its a much more honest level of football, without all the rubbish that goes with the top level in term of pre madonas, excessive money orientated behaviour and lack of regard and respect for the fan that pays all that money to go to the games.

And your all time favourite line-up?

Jonathan North, Fred Barwick, Paul Bowgett, Conor Stevens, Stuart Pearce, Tom Pett, Glen Little, Robin Wainwright, Alan Cordice, Neil Cordice, Jermaine Beckford.

Do you think the club can ever progress to the football league? My honest opinion is that I can't see it just now. This would be mainly to do with the lack of significant financial resource that would be needed to get there, and i would never want to see the club put in jeopardy by another potential financial gamble. However we can all dream can't we? I'd be over the moon if we could get back to the National league and consolidate in that division.

Are your friends aware of Wealdstone?

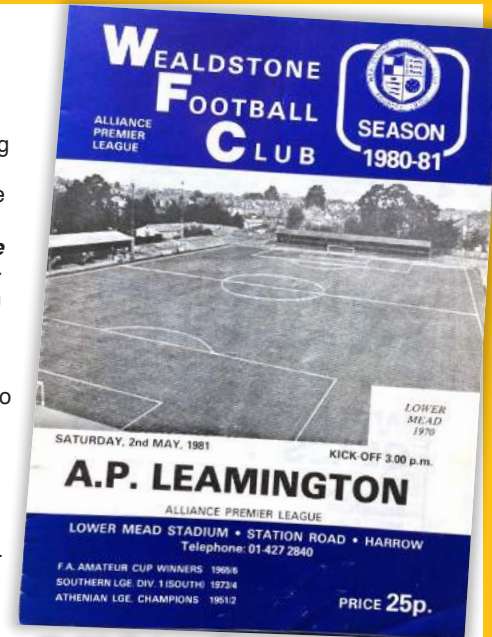

Are they surprised you don't follow a 'big' club? Yes my friends are aware of Wealdstone and I brought some of them down to the final home game of last season (vs Hemel) with them saying they want to come again. A couple of more Chelsea fan mates have just told me they'll come down soon. They don't regard Man Utd as a big club anymore!!

What is your favourite stones game you've ever seen? That's a no brainer, the FA Trophy final at Wembley in 1985. It was just a brilliant occasion that I'll never forget, culminating with seeing the team win and lift that trophy.

What is the best game you've EVER seen? After the FA trophy final, next would be the Billericay away 5-2 win in the trophy

Kevin's first-ever Stones game.. and it was memorable, though not in a good way a couple of years ago when we played fantastic football on a sandpit of a deck, with a brilliant Stones following singing Bradley Bubb through to his debut hat trick.

Who is your favourite current Stones player/s? Danny Green by far. A really skilful and class act who has got better with each passing season, and I think we're now seeing the best of him in this first part of the 2019-20 season.

Do you think more could be done to attract youngsters along to the Vale?

Possibly. I'm not too familiar with any initiatives going on in the local area but I would like to see more free tickets given to kids for specific matches

What do you think of the pricing for games at The Vale? Very fair and with good for concessions and under 18s. Much fairer than a few other clubs in our league

Clubhouse/catering etc? Just about right. Terrific clubhouse bar with competitive drink prices and good atmosphere before and after matches. Burgers are pretty good and I get good use out of the half way tea bar as I stand and watch most of the games behind the dug outs!

Have you played the game yourself (to any level)? I played amateur football for various clubs for 30 odd years, the highest level being for Harrow St Mary's in the Middx Premier league in my early 20's. Other than that I played 15 odd seasons in the Sunday Marathon league for Royston when I remember playing against the Stones supporters team in a cup tie. We lost! Most memorable moment though was playing in a charity match against the ex Arsenal & celebs team, against the likes of Ian Allinson and Tony Hadlee, whilst having a competitive central midfield battle with Mark Ramprakash!

What's your favourite of the three kits this season? Probably the all white kit out of the three.

And what do you think of the Stones programme, pricing, quality and size-wise? It's superb, to be fair, and fully deserving of the awards that have come its way. Not too many adverts and has more variety of features than I've seen even in lower league clubs programmes. I especially enjoy Tim's old Heartbreak half hour for tragic 'Stones.

Wealdstone 1, A.P. Leamington 2
THE sea of tight-lipped, grim faces streaming away from Lower Mead on Saturday bore witness to 30 of the most tragic minutes in the long history of Wealdstone Football Club.

They had just seen a 1-0 lead turn into an astonishing 2-1 defeat in the final half-hour of the final match of the season.

And, in the process, Wealdstone waved goodbye to the Alliance Premier League.

The 'Stones only needed a draw to escape relegation. Three straight wins, against Boston, Kettering and Barrow, had brought the fans through the turnstiles confident of success against the far-from-invincible Leamington side.

And when Robin Wainwright gave Wealdstone the lead from Sweetzer's cross after 61 minutes their joy bubbled to the surface.

"We're staying up this year," sang the crowd behind the Leamington goal, a view seemingly confirmed when Alan Cordice was upended by goalkeeper Dulleston just four minutes later and a penalty awarded.

Two-nil would have sealed the win. And Jimmy Sweetzer, taking only his second penalty for the club, looked confident enough as he ran up to take the kick.

But he missed. The crowd looked on in numb silence as the ball rebounded from the stone wall to the right of Dulleston's goal.

Leamington, who also needed to win to avoid the drop, suddenly realised their plight was not as hopeless as they had at first thought.

Corner

They pushed centre half Gary Brown into attack and in the 77th minute won their first corner of the second half. Farrington swung over the kick, Cranstone missed his punch and Tommy Gorman headed in.

As news filtered through that Nuneaton — the other club in danger — were beating Telford, Wealdstone suddenly became a bag of nerves.

In the 86th minute, centre back Dennis Ryatt failed to clear a hopeful knock on and Doug Hickton raced in to gleefully shoot past Cranstone.

The striker did a victory jig while Wealdstone came to the shocked realisation that their Alliance League life was ebbing away.

Four minutes later it had done.

For the first time in the club's history Wealdstone had been relegated. The news from Nuneaton, who eventually picked up a point in a 3-3 draw, and Barnet — who collected both against Northwich — confirmed that fact.

Alan Cordice . . . tripped

TIM PARKS on Wealdstone's troubled times

'Stones say: 'We'll be back'

WEALDSTONE chairman Fred Dean put on a brave face this week and admitted: "I didn't sleep too well Saturday night."

Can assure Mr. Dean that he was in good company. Many, many supporters have since told me that living in Leamington on Saturday was one of the "worst experiences of their lives."

Not just the fact that Wealdstone will next season be playing among the little clubs of the Southern League. Not just the fact that they will lose their status as a senior non-League side.

More than that, the 'Stones have been relegated just as it seems manager Alan Bradford has assembled a good side at Lower Mead.

But Bradford himself feels that it will not place in the Alliance Premier League.

"If I can get the players I want in the summer we will have a very good team next year. Obviously I need a front player, someone who will score regularly, but I will be said."

Saturday's result also affected him deeply. "It was a terrible blow. I thought before the game, and at half time, that there was no way we could lose."

Yet in the last 30 minutes it all went wrong. Tactics that we worked perfectly for a month failed. We never got to grips with Leamington throwing so many men forward and it was difficult to communicate this to the players.

"Perhaps if we hadn't been having such a good spell we would have been more defensive minded. I don't know. It's history, now."

Wealdstone now have to face the reality of Southern League football and all that implies.

Poor crowds, poor stadiums and return trips to places such as Canterbury, Andover and Crawley Town — soccer backwaters they thought they had left far behind, in the dim distant days of the Southern League.

Yes if Bradford can find the goalkeeper he has recruited high and low for since taking over at Lower Mead in November, Wealdstone should be different class.

No exception

They have been different class to many Alliance League sides this season except Saturday's crunch match was no exception.

Of Wealdstone's 16 shots throughout the 90 minutes, only two were on target; while from a penalty four attempts

For that reason alone, Wealdstone deserve to go down.

The defeat by Leamington on the last day of the 1980-81 season was dramatic and desperate in equal measure as the winners stayed up and the losers went down. And only a penalty miss prevented Wealdstone staying up. But of course, in hindsight it was the best thing that could possibly have happened!

match report press cuttings for nostalgia, as they remind me of some matches I attended as well as some from a decade or 2 before I started going to games. (Good answer! Ed)

Opposition in focus

Bristol Manor Farm Football Club was formed for the 1960/61 season before disbanding and reforming for the start of the 1962/63 campaign.

Our ground here at 'The Creek' used to be the site of the Port of Bristol Authority Sports & Social Club. In 1965 when the authority moved to new premises, Manor Farm took it over, making it our permanent home.

Having a base of our own enabled the club to apply successfully to join the Somerset Senior League where we made good progress through the divisions. In 1977 the club decided to step up to the Western League, joining the First Division for the start of the 1977/78 season.

The Club were crowned Division 1 Champions for 1982/83 and since that promotion to the Premier Division of the Western League Bristol Manor Farm have played most of our football at that level.

The last decade at the club has certainly been the most ambitious period of our history.

An exciting run during the 2010/11 FA Cup competition saw us win a penalty shoot-out against Almondsbury Town and hold Basingstoke Town to a draw before being pipped by a single goal in the replay.

2011/12 was the most successful season in the history of the club to that date. We won the GFA Challenge Trophy after beating Shortwood United 5-0 in a thrilling final and this was followed three days later with another cup triumph when we beat Willand Rovers in extra time to finally lift the Les Phillips Cup.

We lost the GFA Trophy Final to Bristol Academy in 2012/13 however and finished third from bottom of the Premier Division. After good service to the club, Manager John Black decided it was time to stand down.

The start of the 2013/14 season saw the beginning of a new era at Bristol Manor Farm FC when current boss Lee Lashenko took over the Manager's job. Fresh from winning the title with Bishop Sutton, Lashenko quickly made an impact with Manor Farm.

An FA Cup run that saw us put nine goals past Oldland Abbotonians and then seven past Lymington Town quickly brought us to the attention of the national press. The tabloid photographers had a field day down at The Creek – photographing the team with the FA Cup and a variety of 'farmyard' accessories and costumes – it was a brilliant and fun day that everyone here will never forget. The First Round Qualifying Round tie against Corsham Town then ended in a 4-4 draw with Manor Farm winning the hard fought replay 1-0. We then also held Bridgwater Town to a 4-4 draw in the next round before narrowly going out 2-1 in the replay.

The club continued to fight for top spot in the league and also applied for promotion to the Southern League. We finished the league season as Runners-up but were unsuccessful in our promotion bid when Larkhall Athletic were accepted ahead of us. It was the highest-placed finish in the club's league history, however, breaking club records for goals scored and fewest goals conceded.

In 2014-2015 Bristol Manor Farm missed out on promotion to the Southern League by 3 points, allowing Slimbridge to go up instead. We did win the GFA County Challenge Trophy however with a 2-0 win over local neighbours Shirehampton.

During an epic 2015/2016 season an heroic run in the FA Vase took us to within sniffing distance of Wembley with a notable comeback win in the fifth round, overcoming Sunderland RCA 3-2 and a long return trip to the North-East for a Quarter Final showdown with Morpeth Town. On a heavy pitch The Portwaymen were unlucky to go out with Morpeth scoring a breakaway goal in the dying seconds after Farm had laid virtual siege to The Highwaymen's goal throughout the second half. Morpeth went on to beat Hereford FC 4-1 in the showpiece Wembley final.

We finished third in the Western Premier League – just missing out once again on promotion but won the GFA County Challenge Trophy for the second season in succession with a record 9-2 win over Lydney Town in the final. On a happy night at Ashton Gate our former Exeter City and Truro City striker Dean Stamp also won the Bristol Post 'Footballer of the Year' award for his astonishing tally of 59 goals in all competitions.

The many highlights of Manor Farm's triumphant 2016/17 season will be forever woven into the fabric of the club's history as we finally secured that elusive promotion to the Southern League in emphatic style, amassing 102 points and scoring over 100 goals on the way to being crowned as Western League Champions.

We also unluckily missed out on a second FA Vase Quarter Final in succession with another narrow 2-1 defeat in a fifth round tie in front of 1,500 partisan fans at Bromsgrove Sporting FC.

An extraordinary unbeaten league run of 21 games between September and March (19 wins and 2 draws) went a long way to securing the coveted league title for Manor Farm however, which was eventually clinched with three games to spare following a 2-0 win at local club Hallen on Good Friday.

Lee Lashenko and his squad of title winners were warmly acknowledged later in the year on another great night for the club at Ashton Gate - walking off with 'Coach of the Year' and 'Team of the Year' respectively at the Bristol Post Sports Awards.

Manor Farm hit the ground running during our dramatic, first Southern League campaign ('17/18) – briefly leading in the pack in September and never out of the top six until the final agonising fortnight of the season. Despite the obvious disappointment of an eventual 9th placed finish the club was left to reflect on an exciting debut that proved our players were more than capable of competing at the higher levels we desire as a club.

"Our second season felt more like a first season" remarked Lee Lashenko at the end of year awards for the 2018/19 campaign. Beset by a plague of injuries and a rash of suspensions, The Farm failed to find the league consistency of our debut season but the club's national profile was given another further boost by an extended run in the Emirates FA Cup – the best ever in the club's history. We were literally inches and a game away from entering the First Round proper, finally falling to National League side Slough Town in a Third Qualifying Round replay after a valiant 2-2 draw in the original tie at their Arbour Park ground and a 5-2 thumping of Basingstoke Town at home in the previous round.

Boreham Wood aren't many people's favourite club.

The Hertfordshire club rose from obscurity on the back of sizeable investment from chairman Danny Hunter, and canny money-making (through the many satellite astroturf pitches at Meadow Park and clever use of academy funding)... plus the link-up with Arsenal which helped redevelop Wood's now-impressive stadium.

Almost anywhere else, the Meadow Park set-up - now hosting National League football - would guarantee huge local interest.

But the town of Boreham Wood has all but ignored the club at the end of the road.

Just over a year ago, I went to watch Wood play Tranmere Rovers at Wembley in the National League play-off final and, travelling down to Wembley on Thameslink, the train stopped at Boreham Wood to allow about 100 fans to pile into the carriages.

They were mainly rowdy youngsters with little affiliation to the club - brand new black and white scarves and flags were the order of the day - and they were joined by another couple of hundred as we walked along Wembley Way towards the stadium. I'm not sure how many Wood fans I was expecting to see, cheering their home-town club on to a place in the Football League - this was a real fairytale in the making - but there were only a thousand or so in their cavernous end of the ground.

If somebody had held up a banner proclaiming 'Real Fans' with an arrow pointing to the tens of thousands of Tranmere Rovers followers it couldn't have been more stark.

Certainly there were very few neutrals wishing Wood into the Football League. That would have set a new benchmark for low attendances and even Danny Hunter, for whom that afternoon must have been the culmination of all his hopes and dreams, must have finally realised that the people of

Wood chairman hits out at stayaway fans and 'abysmal' crowds

Boreham Wood do not deserve a club of ANY stature.

A season on from that crushing disappointment, the Wood Chairman seems to have given up all hope. An article appeared online after the Wood were beaten 1-0 at home by Sutton United a month ago in front of an official crowd of 407 that included 130 away fans. If you took away the one hundred £99 season ticket holders 'who bothered to attend', according to Hunter, there were just 46 home fans in the ground!

"We've been finding excuses at whatever league we've been playing in and there aren't any excuses left" fumed Hunter. "If you look at the averages we are already over 500 supporters less than the next worst supported club in the National League.

"The truth is, other than the bigger games against the big clubs who carry large away support, we are - after 5 years at National League level - clearly still no bigger than a Ryman league or Southern League Club.

"Today's abysmal crowd just makes me feel sad, as so much hard work goes into making this club over-achieve every year and we just want a bit more support for those efforts. I suppose if you want an excuse, the lower than normal crowd could be put down to three hundred Adult and OAP £99 season ticket holders, who took up our offer but never bothered to turn up and support us.

"But it does feel that the Town will turn out for the bigger cup games and a derby against Barnet, but then seem to want to support the club from their front rooms, from the local pubs and bars who on a Saturday show illegal Premier League games that kick off at 3pm and get themselves updated on social media.

"You can put it down to whatever you like, but there's nothing more that I can do here. I've tried everything and if we're honest with each other, whatever I do or try to do to increase home support nothing seems to work.

"I can't keep wasting my money. I've increased the playing budget in that time by more than 800%, I've built two brand new stands, we've built a new pitch, added a sprinkler system, we've replaced the old floodlights, we've built 6 new changing rooms, twice rebuilt new astro pitch training facilities, while not forgetting that this Town and club went to Wembley in a play off final.

"Most of that was done on crowds that I could fit into my back garden but you would expect them by now to of really improved.

"I've personally spent another half a million since February and along with the £330k from the Football Foundation, £150k from the Town Council and £100k from Arsenal we've spent close to £1.2 m over the summer on a host of facility upgrades and a brand new North stand.

"As I said, I've increased the first team budget and all I seem to hear in every boardroom I enter, is that Arsenal pay for this and Arsenal pay for that, which is a long, long way from the truth. They are a long standing partner, who also expect an awful from us lot for their money which I'm OK with. But we're certainly not where we are because of Arsenal or any single partner, we are where we are because we're a well run, well managed club, built from the bottom up and have great staff.

"All I've heard of from our fans in recent years, was that if I built them a covered home stand that would improve things and the Wood Army would have the place rocking. Well if 407 fans is improving things and if that's rocking, then they've all led incredibly sheltered lives.

Our crowds just never seem to improve in the way that I see at other local clubs like Sutton, Bromley and Maidenhead and it's demoralising.

I feel it might simply be the right time to re-evaluate my own ambitions and consider downsizing my year on year investment here and get rid of a few of the white elephants in the room. It feels that it might be the right time to accept that the current attendances and current support is the best I can hope for."
