MORE CUP FEVER...

Welcome to Grosvenor Vale tonight for even more good old FA Cup floodlit action.

We extend a very warm welcome to our visitors and old friends Maidenhead United, their management team, officials, players and supporters. We hope you enjoy your brief stay with us this evening.

Tonight's victors will already know which opponent awaits in the Emirates FA Cup 1st Round, however print deadlines are such that I can enlighten you no further within these pages.

Finances are always tight as we continue to operate a sustainable football club. As always at this time of the season, we are looking for supporters or businesses to step forward as sponsors to ensure we remain competitive on the pitch. We have a range of Matchday and Ball Sponsorship packages available to suit all pockets, as well as our ever popular Kit Sponsorship that allows you to show your support for your favourite player. Full details of all these packages, which can be customised to your individual requirements, can be found in the pages of this (very hastily compiled) programme.

Enjoy the game

Wealdstone will entertain a Fourth Qualifying Round replay with Maidenhead United after a 1-1 draw at York Road on Saturday afternoon.

An early second half strike from Ross Lafayette looked like the Stones winner until Ryan Upward found a late equaliser for the home side.

The Stones began the brighter of the two sides and set a quick tempo early on, Billy Clifford's curling effort and Lafayette's first-time volley from the edge of the box were the highlights of the early pressure. National League Maidenhead United held firm in the opening ten minutes until they could look for their opener, Jake Cassidy was the first to curl a strike wide. The game became as tight as many predicted as the game settled down, no shots were registered until Magpies forward Josh Kelly's counter-attacking drive down the right was comfortably saved by Aston Oxborough. The Stones reacted with the biggest chance of the half after 24 minutes, an in-swinging corner from Danny Green found Jerome Okimo and was unfortunate to see his header bounce off the far-post. A lead for the away side would have been deserved and Maidenhead needed to respond, Oxborough denied Joe Ellul of the opener at the half-hour mark when the Norwich City loanee got low to parry away the back-post header. The tie became more even again as the Magpies looked to create through Ryheem Sheckleford on the right, as he fired the ball across the face of goal and wide of a target.

Wealdstone got back on the front-foot and finished the half the stronger side, Dennon Lewis and Sanchez Watt both were unfortunate to not convert before the break.

An audacious curler from Magpies speedster Josh Smile at the edge of the box flew over before the whistle was blown for half-time. With the game on a knife-edge at the interval, whichever team came out the stronger in the second half would need to take advantage and convert.

That's exactly what happened for Wealdstone within six minutes of the second period. Lafayette brought the ball down beautifully with the top of his boot from Clifford's lofted pass and fired low across goal into the bottom corner. If the Stones were to beat their National League opponents, they would need to double their advantage, similarly to previous away games at Welling United and St. Albans this season. Connor Stevens almost extended Wealdstone's lead on the hour-mark when he was unlucky to head Clifford's cross from the left over the bar.

The Stones kept the pressure on and Watt was the next to create an opportunity after an intelligent turn on the edge of the box ended in the former Arsenal winger's strike being saved by Chris Dunn. Wealdstone kept pushing on looking to put the tie to bed, Michee Efete struck after a mazy run from right-back located him on the edge of the box. The home side then regained momentum and were floated direct, deep passes into the area in the final 15 minutes to find an equaliser. A fantastic tackle from Efete on the edge of the Wealdstone box lead to a counter-attack with Clifford and Lewis abruptly breaking down near the half-way line. Maidenhead kept pushing and eventually found their goal four minutes from full-time, Upward latched onto a parry from Oxborough and bounced the ball into the bottom corner with his right foot.

PETE RANDALL

Fan in the Stand

'When I played in goal against the Stones for Rayners Lane the fans goaded me about playing for a team with no floodlights...I wasn't sharp enough to ask them why they followed a team with no ground!'

Would you like to be a 'Fan in the Stand'? Send an email to tim.parks@gmail.com or come and see me (Tim Parks) in the ground. The more the merrier!

Today's featured fan is no stranger to Grosvenor Vale. 57-year-old Peter Randall played in goal here for Ruislip Manor for two seasons in the 1980s - the Manor's first two years in the Isthmian League - but started and ended his local football career at Rayners Lane FC.

Whereabouts do you live, Pete? I've lived in Eastcote all of my life.

Are you working, and where? Unfortunately yes! My wife and I spend too much for me to realistically consider retirement. I am an Insurance Loss Adjuster working throughout the South East, but based at home.

When was your first Wealdstone game? Against who, result and your first impressions of the club and stadium? My long term memory is sporadic, but I'm guessing it would have been the early 1980's. It would also have been a midweek game under lights, but I've no idea who against. My memories are of the uncompromising back four, including Stuart Pearce, launching the ball forwards and me always thinking they had over-hit it, but then the Cordice brothers doing their thing! I loved Lower Mead, although it had seen better days it was a proper football ground in my eyes.

Who or what persuaded you to come to a game? When I wasn't playing I just liked watching games. I had a good friend who had played a couple of games for Wealdstone before a bad injury and around that time my Dad was working with Dennis Byatt, so that probably had something to do with it.

I then didn't watch for years. Not at all in the nomadic years, but when Wealdstone moved to Ruislip Manor it was perfect for me and I've pretty much been to at least a dozen games a year since and this is my 3rd year with a season ticket.

Do you follow another team? Yes, since giving up playing on a Saturday I have gone to watch Watford with my son. We no longer have season tickets and in fact prefer to go to away games - now that he is 26 we adopt the #trainbeerfootball approach so loved by Wealdstone fans.

Do your family follow another team? My son obviously is Watford (he does now come to the occasional Stones game with friends), my daughter lives abroad and is a plastic Chelsea fan. My wife is a football widow.

Is it easy to fit football in with your work/family commitments? Yes working from home helps. I've been married 31 years and played football most of that time, so my wife Carol is just used to it. She's great and rarely moans! It obviously helps that my kids are grown up.

What is the main attraction of watching the Stones? The location - I can easily walk here if I'm having a beer (and the fact that I can have that beer in a decent clubhouse) If I'm driving I can pretty much leave home at 10 to 3 and still see kick off! Guaranteed Saturday 3pm football. A good view.

Do you prefer non-League over League football? I've always traditionally been a non-league fan, but enjoy my trips to Watford. Both have their merits, but I definitely prefer the cost of following Wealdstone.

Have you played the game yourself (to any level) and memorable moments? Across 25 years I played in goal for a number of sides including Northwood, Uxbridge, Marlow, and two years here for Ruislip Manor in their first years in the Isthmian League (1984 / 85). I started and finished my career at Rayners Lane, making nearly 400 first team appearances before retiring at 42. I then played regularly on a Sunday morning for Rayners Lane Veterans until officially retiring at 55. Still though get the occasional call from them and at the time of writing have already played once this season!

I won a few things across the years, but for the benefit of this programme I will recall a memorable moment involving the only time I can remember playing against Wealdstone. It was pre-season in the "prestigious" Harrow Summer Cup at Earlsmead and I was playing for Rayners Lane. I was having a decent game and the vocal Stones fans had gone from giving me stick to asking, "Why don't you play for a club with floodlights?" To my lasting regret I wasn't quick enough to reply "Why don't you support a club with a ground?!"

What is your all-time favourite Stones line-up (1-11)? North, Pearce, Cronin, Stevens, Hammond, Poku, Wainwright, Little, Pett, Jolly, Cordice (A) not the most balanced of sides.....

And your current favourite line-up? With the results so far who am I to question the 11 that Dean has been putting out? My only potential change would be Northy, because he's ours (no disrespect to Aston)

Do you think the club can ever progress to the football league? Sadly not in Ruislip Manor, but otherwise why not?

Are your friends aware of Wealdstone? Although I am happy to come alone just to watch a game, I meet or bring friends along occasionally to see if they get the bug.

What is your favourite Stones game you've ever seen? The easy answer is the Trophy final win at Wembley in 1985 although in truth I don't remember too much about it (I have since seen highlights on YouTube). In more recent years I really enjoyed the Trophy run of 2011 / 2012 and in particular the games against Barrow and Dartford. Last year I saw my first away games – at Torquay and the Woking play off, which I really enjoyed despite the results.

What is the best game you've EVER seen? We've established my memory is a bit rubbish, so I'm going to cheat by choosing a game from last season. Seeing Watford come from 2-0 down to beat Wolves in the FA Cup semi-final at Wembley was a great feeling in a superb atmosphere and a fantastic day all round. We won't mention me flying home a day early from a holiday in Spain for the final!

PETE'S PLANE TOUCHES DOWN LAST MAY... TWO HOURS LATE

Who is your favourite current Stones player/s? I like to still think of myself as part of the "Union", so it has to be Jonathan North who has been brilliant over a number of years.

What do you think of the pricing for games at The Vale? I can't complain about my Early Bird season ticket. It certainly means I don't stress if I can't make a game. The reduction for season ticket holders elsewhere is good practice too.

Do you use the megastore or social club/catering etc? Practically the only time I ever eat chips is when I come to a game!

What's your favourite of the three kits this season? I'm not someone to wear a shirt to a game (it should be outlawed over a certain age & weight!), but must admit I bought the 3rd shirt last year just for knocking about at home.

Are you a regular programme buyer?

What do you think of this one? I always buy a Wealdstone programme, but never buy one at a Watford game home or away which tells you something. I really enjoy the content and usually read it in full once I get home. I hope that printed programmes remain a thing, but they probably won't. I stubbornly bought CDs for many, many years before joining the modern world on Spotify.

And what do you think of the club's on-line presence and digital media? I have very recently taken on running the Rayners Lane FC website and so 100% respect the work of any such volunteer.

WEALDSTONE v MAIDENHEAD UNITED

Opposition in focus

The origins of senior football in Maidenhead can be traced back to October 1870 with the formation of Maidenhead Football Club, who subsequently played their first ever fixture on December 17th, 1870 against Windsor Home Park at Bond's Meadow near Maidenhead bridge.

On Thursday, February 16th 1871 the club played their first game on the York Road site against Marlow. This ground, which was then shared with the cricket club, is now officially acknowledged as the oldest continually used football ground in the world by the same club, eclipsing Northwich Victoria's old claim by five years. Maidenhead were one of the original 15 entrants for the first ever FA Cup competition in 1871-72 and the following season reached the last four before losing to Oxford University. Maidenhead reached the quarter-finals in the next two seasons, but in 1876 did not enter, although this was the only season they failed to participate. They also entered the first ever Berks & Bucks Cup competition in 1878 - winning the competition for the first time in 1895 - and the first FA Amateur Cup in 1893. The adopted club colours were Red & Black, initially worn as halved shirts, but changed to stripes in 1904.

Maidenhead FC merged with three sides before the Great War. Maidenhead Excelsior were founded in 1877 and joined forces with the Red & Blacks in 1885. Maidenhead Temperance - originally known as Maidenhead Band of Hope - amalgamated with the club in 1891 and Boyne Hill FC did likewise later that year. After many seasons of playing friendlies and Cup matches, Maidenhead FC were founder members of the Southern League in 1894 but competing in Division 2 with the likes of Watford, Brentford, Fulham and Brighton proved too demanding and the club consistently struggled. Eventually in 1902, after eight years of membership, they resigned and joined both the West Berkshire League and the Berks & Bucks League. In 1904 Maidenhead became members of the Great Western Suburban League where they remained until the outbreak of the Great War.

Spartans and Corinthians

After the Great War the two remaining town clubs - Maidenhead and Maidenhead Norfolkians (founded 1884) - decided to join forces. The conflict had meant that it is unrealistic to run two senior clubs, so after a meeting in April 1919, the Norfolkians were incorporated into the Maidenhead club, and soon afterwards a kit of black and white was adopted as club colours. There was immediate success in the first season of structured league football as Maidenhead FC won the Great Western Suburban League. In August 1920 the suffix "United" was added but, more importantly, the freehold of York Road was purchased for £1,450 from William Grenfell, later to become Lord Desborough. Two years later the club joined the Spartan League and the 500 seater grandstand - at the time considered one of the best of its kind - was opened by Club President, Ernest Dunkels.

Maidenhead United won the Spartan League title three times during their nineteen year stay. In 1929-30 season the club's goal-scoring record for a season was set when Jack Palethorpe notched 65 goals in 39 games, including an individual post 1919 record of seven in one game against Wood Green Town. Jack went on to play for Sheffield Wednesday and scored in the Owls FA Cup win in 1935. In 1936, Maidenhead reached the semi-final of the FA Amateur Cup losing 4-1 to Ilford at West Ham in front of 18,000 spectators. It was during that season that the record attendance for a Maidenhead home match of 7,989 was set when Southall visited York Road in the quarter-final. During the Second World War, the club competed in the Great Western Combination.

In 1945 the club were founder members of the Corinthian League. After many seasons of relative mediocrity, fortunes changed under the guidance of ex-Brentford forward, Len Townsend, and then former Slough Town manager Jimmy Price, and the Magpies enjoyed the first real "purple-patch" in their history. In seven seasons between 1956 and 1963 the club won the league three times, were runners-up twice and also reached the third round of the FA Amateur Cup in 1960, losing to West Auckland at York Road in front of a post-war record attendance for a Maidenhead game of 5,597. As well as County Cup, County Benevolent Cup and League Memorial Shield successes during this period, the 1st round proper of the FA Cup was reached in 1960 (losing 5-0 away to Colchester United), 1962 (losing 3-0 at home to Wycombe Wanderers) and 1963 (losing 2-0 to Bath City at York Road).

Athenians and Isthmians

In 1963, United joined the Athenian League finishing a best placed 3rd in 1965-66. In 1973, the Magpies were elected into the newly created second division of the Isthmian League. They made a concerted effort to achieve promotion to the Premier Division in 1979 and 1980 when managed by Geoff Anthony (finishing 3rd on both occasions), and then again in 1985 under Brian Caterer and Colin Lippiatt, when they finished 4th. They remained in this division until 1987 when the Club suffered relegation for the first time in its history, and the dark days were made worse with the destruction of the main grandstand by an arson attack in December 1986. It took four seasons to get out of Division Two South, and this was achieved under the guidance of Martyn Spong in 1991. An Isthmian League record of 13 straight wins at the start of 1990-91 season was the springboard to success, but the club lost out on the title to Abingdon Town on the last day of the season. During this season, however, the team established a club record of 19 league games without defeat. Following the unexpected departure of Spong to Enfield in the summer of 1991, Gary Goodwin, John Clements and then John Watt took on the manager's job with generally moderate results and the club regularly finished in or around mid-table.

Maidenhead's official history appears to not have been updated since 2012/13 however in 2016-17 Maidenhead won the renamed National League South, earning promotion to the National League with 98 points and remain at National League level to this day.

MAIDENHEAD UNITED

CHRIS DUNN - GOALKEEPER

Experienced goalkeeper signed in the summer from Walsall. From his Essex roots in Brentwood he signed his first professional contract for Northampton Town in 2005, going onto make over one hundred appearances for the Cobblers. Club captain, Alan gained national fame when he gave the Magpies the lead live on BT Sport in the FA Cup 1st Round replay against Port Vale at York Road. Ever present in the title winning season, leading the parsimonious defence by example, he reached the hundred appearance mark for United early on last season. 2017/18 Supporters' Player of the Year Runner-Up. Passed the 150 appearance mark last season and his fast approaching his 200th.

FREDDIE GRANT - DEFENDER

Hot prospect signed in the summer from WEALDSTONE. Freddie is a left sided player who started his career with Oxford City and has also played for Farnborough and Margate. He is the younger brother of former Magpie Harry and is related to the famous footballing family of Allens, being the nephew of Martin.

REMY CLERIMA - DEFENDER

Cultured French defender signed in November 2016. Used principally as a right back but is equally at home in the centre of defence or midfield. Made his 100th full appearance for the Magpies last season. Combines his football with a successful career as a male model. SETH TWUMASI - DEFENDER

Versatile defender signed in November 2018 from Maidstone United. 28 year old Seth started his career at Chelsea working his way through the ranks to earn a professional contract with the Blues whilst representing England at Under 16, 17, 18 and 20 level. Born in Ghana, Seth can play anywhere along the defensive line and in midfield. He made his senior debut on loan at Dagenham & Redbridge before leaving Stamford Bridge for Peterborough United. He continued in the Football League with Northampton Town and Newport Country, joining the Stones in September 2016, just after their return to the top tier of non league football. Since signing for the Magpies he has filled the right back role.

JAMES COMLEY - MIDFIELD

Highly regarded central midfielder who initially signed from St. Albans on loan in February 2016. He went onto play a key role in the Magpies push for the play offs and was signed up at the end of the season. One of the leading lights in the Magpies title winning team due to the way his inspirational runs drive the team forward, often finishing with a defence splitting pass. James started his career at Crystal Palace and went onto play a leading role in the Saints resurgence as part of their Southern League Premier Division promotion winning team of 2014. Current Montserrat international. Made his 100th full appearance for the Magpies last season.

BERNARD MENSAH - FORWARD

Mason signed for the Farm this season, he was with the Bristol Rovers academy until he was 17yrs, he has since played for Melksham Town, Cribbs and last season he was at Larkhall Athletic.

We've got a rich history with the Magpies.. especially in last few seasons.

Even our oldest fans, octogenarians Alan Couch and Lew Sheppard (to name but two) weren't born when we first came up against Maidenhead United 96 years ago.

But even if you remembered those clashes in the Spartan League you'd have to concede that the current games between the clubs are higher-octane.

Due to the strictures of print deadlines I've had to pull together some 'Rewind' material from when we first faced the Magpies in the Conference South five years ago. It was great to see the Stones finally finding ourselves back alongside a club who had passed us - like a Japanese bullet train, all sleek and purposeful - a decade earlier.

Now Alan Devonshire's side have gone up another level and found their crowds increase threefold thanks to renewed interest and clever marketing ... and a spectacular season three years ago that saw them riding high at the top of the National League South for months on end. Sounds familiar?

But while we'll be second favourites to progress tonight we didn't do too badly against them in our last few clashes.

They were only beaten three times on their march to the title in 2016-17, and one of those came on Boxing Day here at the Vale when a late humdinger from Elliott Godfrey - after Elliott Benyon had put us ahead and the prolific Dave Tarpey had levelled from the spot for the Magpies - had Gordon Bartlett punching the air.

Above: Ellis Godfrey celebrates his fantastic winner on Boxing Day 2016 and (left) Ryheem Sheckleford facing the Magpies as a Stone. Right: a welter of programmes from our recent meetings

That came on the back of an unexpected win over high flying Maidenhead in the FA Trophy.

In shades of last Saturday's draw, that game ended 2-2 at York Street when home sub Harry Pritchard scrambled a late equaliser for the home side after Eddie Oshodi and Johnny Wright had given Stones a deserved lead, sandwiched by a Sam Barrett goal. Maidenhead's Ryan Upward (who scored the equaliser three days ago) had been sent off after 39mins for a studs-up challenge on Godfrey.

And another powerful, committed performance saw us go through 2-1 on a freezing Tuesday night replay thanks to two great strikes - Matty Whichelow burying the first past Carl Pentney and then loanee centre back Liam Goulding looped a terrific volley over the stranded keeper after he had half punched away a corner. Tarpey struck late on but the Stones were through en route to that famous afternoon at Southport.

And now one to forget...that night 15 years ago when Trophy dreams were shattered...

When I first started following the Stones in the late 1960s, Maidenhead were a struggling outfit playing in the Athenian League, whom we met twice a year in the Premier Midweek Floodlit League or Mithras Cup, both subsidiary competitions.

By this time Wealdstone were big cheeses in the Isthmian League and whenever the floodlit games came around you had the impression that Maidenhead were always out to 'put one over' Dave Underwood's side.

The abiding memory is one of dank evenings at a sparsely-populated Lower Mead, with the supposedly-superior Stones often on the receiving end.

Then we turned 'pro' and it would be nigh-on 30 years before we met Maidenhead again.

These rewind notes always seem to contain the phrase... 'While the Stones were climbing the football pyramid and becoming the first club to win the non-League double, so and so were ploughing a steady course in the -sthmian League until our downward trajectory began and we met several decades later...'

Well, that is the case with Maidenhead too, although in their case we had to climb up to the Ryman Div One before finally reappearing at their famous York Road ground in 1998.

Why famous? As every football buff should know, Maidenhead are not quite the oldest club in the country (Sheffield FC hold that honour) but they have played continuously at the same ground for longer than ANY club in the history of our beautiful game. Since 1871 in fact. And when our paths crossed again our supporters quickly struck up a respectful friendship, recognising a weight of history and serial underachievement.

As for memorable games between the two, what about these....

THIS long-awaited last-32-of-the-Trophy clash at York Road ten years ago was an unmitigated disaster!

The Stones – then playing in the Ryman Division One North – were having a patchy league season but seemed inspired by the Trophy... we'd beaten East Thurrock 5-0, Premier Division Hitchin 1-0 and then Prem table-toppers Thurrock 3-2 on a memorable night to reach a point where you could actually smell Wembley's twin towers (metaphorically, anyway). The game was scheduled for the previous Saturday but heavy rain forced a postponement – a shame as the 250-odd Stones fans in the 425 crowd would have been even more impressive on a weekend. And they felt totally let down by a Wealdstone display totally out of keeping with those previous firebrand performances.

Boss Gordon Bartlett was an angry man, making no excuses for his injury-hit side.

"We totally and utterly underachieved tonight" he said. "Yes, we were missing (strikers) Marvin Morgan and Ben Alexander, and then lost Jermaine Beckford with a hamstring pull but I've spoken before about having a good enough squad. They were the ones wearing the jerseys tonight and it wasn't good enough".

Yet nobody would have predicted such a one-sided result after the opening 20 minutes. Beckford (the youth product who went on to star for Leeds, Everton and currently now at Bolton) was returning from his loan spell at Uxbridge and linked well with the lively Richard Jolly to force a succession of early corners. But Maidenhead survived, and rode their luck when keeper Nick Hart dropped a Tommy Williams cross under pressure from Jolls – only to see Beckford stab his shot wide of a gaping goal.

Minutes later Jermaine pulled up in agony and had to be replaced by Dave Ryan. "I had thought about bringing Danny Tilbury on as a straight swop for Jermaine, but instead pushed Martin Carter forward with Jolls", explained boss Gordon.

"The idea was that Martin would hold the ball up and enable Dave to get a few shots in on goal... but we stopped passing at that point and totally lost the initiative".

Maidenhead suddenly sparked into life as the Stones lost their shape and our old boy Lawrence Yaku skated across the box to set up Steve Hale for a simply-taken opener.

You sensed we would be happy for 0-1 at the break and a chance to reorganise, but the a steady start to the second half never materialised as the Magpies grabbed a freakish second goal just six minutes in. Right-back Steve Sanders lofted a deep cross into the box and watched in delight as the wind carried it beyond Andy Carter into the far corner of the net.

We were reeling for ten minutes and Danny Butler was punished for giving the ball away by his old Northwood team-mate Yaku – who buried No. 3.

On came Danny Tilbury for Rob Courtnege, and immediately there was a glimmer of hope as Tilbs and Jolls helped the ball into the path of Dave Ryan, who smashed a deflected 16-yarder past Hart.

The decibel level soared again behind the Magpies' keeper but Maidenhead duly raced to the other end and effectively settled the tie when Butler and Billy Amartiefio (who was otherwise excellent, in my book) failed to deal with the livewire Yaku who slotted in for 4-1. The final strike, a stunning 25-yarder by defender Mark Boyce (who later did the same when playing for us at Hendon a few years later) twisted the knife in Stones fans' guts.

A quote from coach Fred Cummings just about summed it up. "Maidenhead weren't good enough to get us to raise our game" he said afterwards, adding that he felt too many Stones players treated it more like a League game than a final-32-of-the-Trophy tie.

Gordon Bartlett pulled no punches in his programme notes the following week. "I'm embarrassed and bitterly disappointed" he said. "All these phrases came to mind as I struggled to get to sleep after that capitulation. My team showed a real lack of character, I thought, a complete change from the highs we all experienced after the win over Thurrock. I want more nights like that. So do you, the fans.

"To be totally honest the team have played like that once in 10 weeks, and have been living off it ever since. We were poor in the games leading up to Thurrock, and poor in the games since, and I'm not going to hide behind the fact that we'd lost our potent strike force through injury and suspension.

"If you took Stevie Hale and Lawrence Yaku out of the equation for Maidenhead they would look pretty thin up front. Yet I think that the loss of Alon Hummerdinger, who was trialling for Oldham Athletic, was as much a loss for

We should have been partying like it was 1999.. but this win at York Road was tainted by NOT going up

Saturday April 3rd 1999, Ryman League Division One: Maidenhead 0 Wealdstone 3 HAPPIER memories of York Road at the end of the millennium... or were they? The 1998-99 season had a bittersweet finale as Gordon Bartlett's side put together a fantastic run of one defeat in 23 games in our first season following promotion from Division Two.

This comprehensive win at the mid-table Magpies came slap-bang in the middle of that run, which saw the Stones secure runners-up spot and elevation to the Premier Division. At least, it would have meant elevation to the Premier Division in any sane society, but we are talking about the Ryman League ground grading committee here.

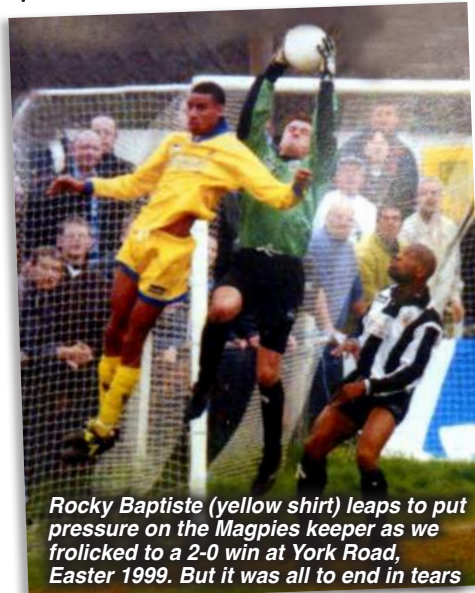

Excuse me if I bore you with old, well-trodden 'news' from 20 years ago, but the powers-that-were saw fit to deny us promotion because our ground improvements were (apparently) completed six days too late. But still four months before the start of the season. Not that it still rankles!

Anyway, we were talking about Maidenhead and I'm sure the Magpies were one of the few Ryman clubs who voted for us when we took the matter to arbitration, because we have a great relationship - at least with their fans. We reproduce an article from the 2004 FA Trophy programme detailing a friendship fostered over a few pints at the Change of Hart in Edgware following Maidenhead's 3-0 win on New Year's Day 1999.

us as he is a class act at the back, and his pace invaluable.

So I'm very, very disappointed. We had our chance and blew it".

The result was all the more galling as a tantalising trip to former League side Halifax awaited the winners. Maidenhead were beaten in Yorkshire, while we turned our thoughts back to promotion out of Division One North.

Rocky Baptiste (yellow shirt) leaps to put pressure on the Magpies keeper as we frolicked to a 2-0 win at York Road, Easter 1999. But it was all to end in tears

As Murdo Macleod says in his article: "When the teams met again in April we assured the Stones fans that we'd oblige their request for three promotion points with a gutless and inept display, which we did".

The season was beginning to pan out in an extraordinary way. On February 13, following a 3-1 defeat Oxford City, the club decided that promotion was out of the question (we'd won nine and lost nine) and GB's budget was cut. But it fostered a terrific atmosphere in the 18-strong squad and the Stones set off on a terrific league run including wins at Premier Division sides Harrow Borough and Hayes in the Middlesex Cup.

Noel Imber in goal, playing behind a settled defence of Eddie Boxford, Dominic Sterling, Ian Waugh and Phil Dicker; a workmanlike and talented midfield of Steve Bircham, Paul McKay, Paul Benning and Carl Homles (with Chris Walton and Paul Lamb filling in); and up front the exciting Rocky Baptiste, Brian Jones or Mickey Swaysland. Baptiste and 'Bircham's Powders' grabbed the goals in our 2-0 win at Maidenhead in front of a decent Easter Saturday crowd of 362. But both our clubs have progressed in such a way that less than three times that number tonight would be a huge disappointment.

STONES AND STRIPES

A warm welcome to all the 'Stones fans who have made the journey for this important FA Trophy tie, to many of whom we'll be saying "Hello Again".

We first met the Wealdstone supporters in the Change of Hart, the pub outside the 'Stones current ground in Edgware. When I say 'we', I mean the usual suspects. No names are required, as you know who you are, those idiots, myself included, who go to virtually every Magpies match. It was 2nd January 1999. We'd just won 3-0 at the White Lion Ground, a result that on the face of it had meant very little in the grand scheme of things. Having finished 4th the previous season, playing some scintillating football in the process, we found ourselves floundering in mid-table, as were Wealdstone at the time. We'll talk to any one of us, and I mean anyone, and so it was that, after a few beers, we started chatting to the few remaining despondent 'Stones fans, Beany, Trevor, Sudhir and a few others. The now infamous 'Grim' wasn't there that day. Something to do with getting his TV fixed ?! We quickly found that we had a few things in common. A love of our team obviously, an unswerving loyalty to said team although sometimes going a bit overboard (ahem, I can certainly relate to that one), an ability to laugh at ourselves as well as everyone else and a bit of a thirst. I also vaguely recall musical tastes being discussed, but more about that later.

The return league game at York Road took on massive importance to Wealdstone as, having put together a tremendous run, they found themselves vying for one of the promotion places. The 'Stones fans turned out in numbers at the pub which is now the Honeypot. I can clearly recall their excitement at hearing that the additional work done by the fans (on a ground which wasn't even theirs!) had secured the precious 'A' grading required to smooth the possible passage to the Premier division. The ensuing problems and refusal to allow them up, despite claiming 3rd position, have been well documented but, to a club who've been homeless for over a decade and fans who had witnessed a sad decline of a former non-league giant, it was yet another kick in the teeth. As an outsider looking in, it seemed all so 'Wealdstonesque'. Despite their nervousness, I reassured the assembled 'Stones that we'd no doubt oblige their request for 3 points with a gutless and inept display. We duly did this and lost 2-0, finishing the season in the relative obscurity of 11th.

Buoyed by this latest success the 'Stones rabble duly hit the town. As the singing got louder and more enthusiastic, some pubs welcomed the trade. Some weren't quite so keen though and seeing Keith Jackson being told to drink up and get out of the Hand and Flowers, approximately 10 seconds after he'd walked through the door was hilarious. It almost certainly explains why it's such a rugby-friendly pub these days! We might give that one a miss after today's game.

The following season, our promotion season, was notable for a 1-0 away win, the goal coming from Mickey Creighton. My abiding memory of this match was Barry Rake keeping the ball near the corner flag at the end of and more enraged. Well I enjoyed it anyway. In the home game, 'Stones returned the previous season's favour by allowing us a straightforward victory.

With more and more contacts subsequently made by both camps during ensuing meetings, it came as no surprise that a couple of supporters matches have been played. Not too smart a move on our part as, although we somehow managed a credible 3-2 defeat in Somme like conditions, a rematch saw a complete hiding as we lost 11-4. In our defence they do have 3 Sunday league sides! We fared better at the inaugural 'Stones 5 a side tournament, making the plate semi-final before losing to the fattest, oldest team there, Duiwich B. Not that I'm bitter about it you understand.

Fundraising for their new stadium has seen some innovative events, none more so than Stones Aid. Those of us who went had an excellent time, although Steve Jimman's Marlow supporting friend came in for a fair amount of stick! Each band even managed to incorporate a 'Stones related song into their set. Bob Geldof would have been proud. We even bumped into some of them at a Buzzcocks gig in Shepherd's Bush. Sad old punks. So then, basically they like a drink, support their team, shout and sing, occasionally upset the 'establishment' and are loyal to the end. Can't be bad eh?

I'm personally really pleased for the 'Stones fans that the development of their new home at Prince Edward Playing Fields is well underway. It sounds like it will be an extremely impressive facility and will be the least the fans deserve for their unswerving loyalty during some testing times which may have sent lesser clubs to the wall. It would be great if Maidenhead could get an early chance to visit for a match. Only in one of the cups, mind you! Finally then, back to today's match. Ah, yes the FA Trophy. So many memories but that's another story altogether..... I hope the 'Stones Massive enjoy the day, just not the result.

MURDO MACLEOD

This article appeared in the Maidenhead programme for the Trophy tie 15 years ago. Is Murdo here today? No doubt Trevor, Beanie, Grim and the rest will be at the bar, entertaining their Magpie pals
