CLUB NOTES

Middlesex Senior Cup Final 1st Leg

14th May, 1966 at 7.30 p.m.
WEALDSTONE v ENFIELD

Good Evening and welcome to Lower Mead.

After the battle of the Roses this afternoon at the Stadium we stage at Lower Mead our last game as far as Wealdstone is concerned this season when we take on our old friends and neighbours Enfield, in the first leg of the Final of the Middlesex Senior Cup. The second leg will be played at Enfield on the 24th May. This evening on behalf of Wealdstone Football Club we offer a very sincere welcome to Officials, Players and Supporters from Southbury Road Stadium and as usual we expect a keen tussle from the team now coached by our old friend, Tom Lawrence, but one thing is sure, you do get a second bite of the cherry in these two leg Finals. Anyway let's hope it is a good clean game, with the best team taking the honours.

Here is how we both stand at the moment in the Middlesex Senior Cup.

1923/24	Wealdstone	Runners up
1929/30	Wealdstone	Winners
1937/38	Wealdstone	Winners
1940/41	Wealdstone	Winners
1941/42	Wealdstone	Winners
1942/43	Wealdstone	Winners
1945/46	Wealdstone	Winners
1945/46	Enfield	Runners up
1947/48	Enfield	Runners up
1951/52	Enfield	Runners up
1957/58	Enfield	Runners up
1961/62	Enfield	Winners
1962/63	Wealdstone	Winners
1962/63	Enfield	Runners up
1963/64	Wealdstone	Winners

It is a record

Wealdstone this season knocked Hendon out of the London Senior Cup, F.A. Amateur Cup and the Middlesex Senior Cup. The same Clubs were drawn against each other for all three competitions. Has it happened before in Middlesex or any other County you know; if so let me know; first letter opened will secure a Prize.

WEALDSTONE v WOKING

Playing for the third consecutive evening our lads lost to Woking by the odd goal. They made a rally early in the second half to draw level, but Woking went ahead again soon afterwards. As was only to be expected they were much the fresher side and deserved the points. It was however an entertaining game with little in it between the two sides. Jim Bridgen.

SUPPORTERS CLUB NOTES

Good evening to all supporters and a 'how do' to our friends from Enfield. This Final is on a two way basis with the return leg at Enfield on Tuesday, the 24th May at 7.30 p.m. Please see Miss Robson for your coach booking or telephone BYRon 0799.

As this is the last match at Lower Mead for the 'Stones' this season I would like to record my thanks. First of all to the Football Club for allowing me the space for these notes each week. To John Ashworth and the Lads for their delightful football, especially those F.A. and Amateur Cup games culminating in that glorious Wembley Final. Thanks Lads. To Vin Burgess and his able assistants. To those lively lads—the Reserves. To our refreshment ladies for their valuable assistance. Last but by no means least to our happy go lucky band of supporters who, wet or fine, turn up both at Lower Mead and to away games and give the team such wholehearted support.

Good health, good luck, and have a nice holiday and come back next season fit and fresh with a lung bursting roar of
