

Wealdstone on the rise

Gordon Bartlett believes Wealdstone will take huge belief and confidence after holding Conference South title contenders Havant & Waterlooville to a 2-2 draw on Monday night.

Havant went into the contest as the league leaders after eight successive wins but hosts Wealdstone more than matched them as goals from James Hammond and Scott McGleish earned them a point.

Stones boss Bartlett said: "They are really well fancied this season but we matched them and at times I think we were better than them.

"We have proved a point that we are capable of performing against one of the best teams in the league."

The only sour point was Bartlett being sent from the dugout for the first time in his career – a decision which left the manager baffled.

Bartlett said: "I got sent off for confrontation but I wasn't being confrontational at all. It was absolutely ridiculous and I'm one of the calmest managers out there.

"I will wait and see but will almost certainly appeal if I get a fine or ban."

The point was the second positive result of the week for Wealdstone after a 2-1 win at Weston-super-Mare on Saturday lifted them off the foot of the table.

The Stones trailed 1-0 but McGleish and a header from Tom Hamblin turned the contest around.

The manager said: "It wasn't a fantastic performance but we showed real character and desire which were the things that we were looking for.

"It was a very good day all round and it definitely gave us an injection of belief and confidence heading into Monday."

Wealdstone have arranged a friendly at home to Met Police this weekend after being knocked out of the FA Cup.

Former Watford and Luton Town midfielder Jamie Hand will feature and has been given the chance to join the club.

Bartlett said: "He will play on Saturday. He needs match fitness to get to the required level but if it goes well then he will be a decent addition for the club."

The Stones boss added: "The team will be a mixture of the squad this weekend. The result is obviously not important to us but match fitness for several players is one of the priorities."

Borough dumped out cup by Enfield Town

Harrow Borough were knocked out of the Ryman League Cup after losing 1-0 at Enfield Town on Tuesday night.

Dave Anderson fielded a much-changed team from the one expected to take on Waltham Abbey at home in Saturday's FA Cup third qualifying round tie.

The Towners netted the winning goal six minutes into the second half. Corey Whitely outmuscled Danny May to a loose ball and fired past Nick Jupp.

It was nearly 2-0 through Whitely again but his effort was kept out by a superb Jupp save.

The visitors went close to scoring an equaliser late on but Spencer Bellotti fired wide from close range while he also lobbed over the bar.

The Reds will turn their attention to the FA Cup this weekend when they face Ryman North side Waltham Abbey who are unbeaten in eight matches.

Boro were ruthlessly punished on Saturday as they fell to a 4-1 defeat at Peacehaven & Telscombe in the Ryman Premier Division.

Anderson's side conceded the opener when Joe Gatting slotted past Charlie Horlock.

But the Reds equalised after the half hour mark when Lewis Driver's effort was blocked on the line and Jake Gilbert netted the follow up.

Peacehaven restored their lead in the second half through Gatting against the run of play.

Sami El Abd headed in the third before Boro's hopes were extinguished by Josh Jones' curling effort.

Eagles land promotion

Harrow Hockey Club Eagles won promotion to Division Two after the second round of matches.

The team faced Wycombe, Eastcote and Buckingham after a successful first round in the competition. In the opener Harrow drew 1-1 with Wycombe after Anika Patel gave them the lead.

It was the same scoreline against Eastcote as the Eagles fought back to level the match through Priyal Dhanjal.

In the final game, the Eagles edged to a 1-0 win over Buckingham to ensure they finished top and clinched promotion.

The winner came when Dhanya Rasakulariur slotted home for the victors.

The Harrow Hawks had a disappointing weekend just missing out on top spot in Division One to Buckingham.
