

Wycombe Wanderers edge to Stones victory

Wealdstone were beaten 2-1 at home to League Two Wycombe Wanderers in their latest friendly on Tuesday night.

The Stones were not at full strength with Sean Cronin, Tom Hamblin, Jerome Okimo and Scott McGleish all unavailable for the game at Grosvenor Vale.

Wanderers should have opened the scoring after eight minutes when Steven Craig struck the bar from close range.

The Stones went close to taking the lead but Luke Pigden's free-kick was saved by Charlie Horlock. The keeper also blocked an effort from Tom Hickey.

Wycombe went in front during the second half of the match when former Stones loanee Matt McClure took advantage of a defensive lapse to score.

Nikki Ahamed made a surprise appearance off the bench, having left the club three years ago, and the midfielder fired home an equaliser.

But the visitors pinched the win late on when substitute Sam Wood netted.

Wealdstone drew 0-0 at home to a Watford development side last week before being held 1-1 at Wingate & Finchley on Saturday after a Wes Parker goal.

er Mark Bentley has decided to leave the newly-promoted Conference South club.

The former Gillingham player's work commitments have made travelling to matches difficult and he has moved on with first-team football not guaranteed at the Stones.

Manager Gordon Bartlett said: "We couldn't guarantee Mark a place in the side with so much competition in midfield. He has really enjoyed his time at the club and wishes us all well for the coming campaign.

"Likewise we wish Mark all the very best; his professional attitude on and off the pitch in helping us win the league last season was plain to see.

"It was unfortunate that fitness meant that Mark didn't get the minutes he undoubtedly deserved and we totally understand his difficulty with the travelling and wanting to play at this stage of his career. We wish him well."

The club have also confirmed that Welsh striker Jay Brockway has moved on after a trial.

Back on track

Bessborough returned to winning ways with a seven-wicket victory over Alexandra Park in the Middlesex Championship Division One on Saturday.

Alexandra Park opted to bat first but were dismissed for 208 in 52.3 overs.

Nitin Modha picked up four for 33 while Rohan Karkhanis had equally impressive figures (four for 33).

Openers Ishan and Jigar Shah got off to a strong start in reply, as they put on 59 in the first eight overs.

Ishan was out for 19 but Jigar Shah hit 61 for his fourth half-century in the league this season.

Ramesh Gunalan also impressed as he notched 51 for his third half-century during the campaign.

Sherrick Chavda (29 not out) and Hemmen Jutla (32 not out) steered the side to the target inside just 29 overs.

The win keeps Bessborough in second place four points behind leaders Osterley.

Bessborough Seconds were held to a draw in their Division Three match against Enfield Seconds.

Their opponents declared on 230 for five and Bessborough were relieved to avoid defeat as they limped to 116 for nine.

The Thirds eased to a seven-wicket win over Perivale Phoenixians Thirds in Middlesex 1987 Division One.

Teenager lands squash title win

Harrow's Hasnaat Farooqi won the Under-19 Squash Open at Charing Cross Club.

Farooqi managed to reach the final against number one seed Sebastian Chichizola in a tournament hosted by top England coach Ben Ford.

The 15-year-old had a hard time at the start but dug deep and won the final without even dropping a game.
