

Bartlett keen to bring Calcutt back to Stones

Wealdstone manager Gordon Bartlett has admitted he would like to bring Connor Calcutt back to the club in the new year after he has recovered from his broken leg.

The on-loan Stevenage striker suffered the injury during Monday's win at Chelmsford City and faces between two to three months on the sidelines.

But Bartlett has been very impressed with his contribution and would like to bring him back to Grosvenor Vale once he returns to fitness.

Bartlett said: "It was totally innocuous. The hospital said it's probably about eight weeks so you're looking at ten to 12 weeks until he gets fit.

"It was only a short-term loan but we were looking to extend it. He did very well and we were very keen to extend it so we will revisit that when he is fit.

"He is a great lad and I feel very sorry for him. Now he has to be strong and get over it. The good news is it was a clean break."

The manager added: "He fitted in so well and everybody likes him. He was just beginning to find his feet and do well here so it's a shame."

Wealdstone picked up a valuable 2-0 win at Chelmsford this week which moved them four points clear of the bottom of the Conference South relegation zone.

Bartlett's side got off to a superb start after a stunning strike from Elliott Godfrey in the third minute.

The Stones sealed the points in the second half when Shaun Lucien netted from close range.

Bartlett said: "I'm very pleased after the last few weeks when we have deserved more than we got.

"We are focused on climbing up the table and seeing how many sides we can go above.

"In the last four games we have not got what we deserved and it hurt. This is a massive result in terms of belief and for team morale."

The Stones return home on Saturday to face a Concord Rangers side that they have lost to this season in the league and the FA Cup.

Bartlett said: "We have played them three times this year and they have had the upper hand so far. But there is no reason why we cannot get our first home league win under our belt."

Reds boost survival bid with Bury Town win

Harrow Borough eased their relegation fears after a 3-1 home win over fellow strugglers Bury Town in the Ryman Premier Division on Tuesday night.

The Reds climbed out of the drop zone after a much-needed three points at Earlsmead which takes them up to 19th in the table.

Dave Anderson's side got off to a fast start and their first effort of the game fell to Marc Charles-Smith but his strike was saved by keeper Alex Archer.

The hosts continued to threaten and went close through Michael Bryan but the winger's shot flew over the bar.

Boro's pressure on the visitors saw them fire in another effort through Jake Gilbert but his shot floated past Bury's post.

The Reds went even closer from a set piece but Howard Hall's free-kick was blocked and Gilbert's follow up struck the crossbar.

After a slow first 20 minutes, Bury Town started to come into the contest as Phil Weavers fired wide of the target.

Keeper Nick Jupp was finally called into action when he was required to make a decent save from a shot by Joe Benjamin.

But the opening goal of the match came just four minutes before the break for the home side.

Julian Smith set up Bryan and he kept his composure to fire past the keeper for his first goal for the club.

But the lead did not last long as Jordan Patrick skipped down the wing and curled a shot past Jupp for the equaliser in injury time.

The hosts regained their advantage seconds later though when Charles-Smith laid the ball off to Lewis Driver and he was brought down in the area and Charles-Smith scored.

Anderson's side were on top in the second half and went close to adding a third through Jerome Walker but he fired past the post.

However, the Reds clinched the points after 68 minutes when the side completed an attacking move.

Bryan and Hall combined before the former Watford youngster set up Walker for a decent finish.

New signing and former Wealdstone striker Greg Ngoyi was given a run-out towards the end of the match.

Ngoyi almost set up a fourth goal but Walker failed to take advantage of the opportunity.

The visitors had late chances through Chris Benjamin and Seb Dunbar but Jupp kept out their efforts.

Boro will look to take this form into their home game with fifth-place Dulwich Hamlet this weekend.
