HERON

ON THE BALL with
BRIAN HALL

RATHER than give the usual formal welcome to Enfield F.C. Players, Officials, and Supporters and hope you enjoy your stay etc. etc., I thought it may be more appropriate to say to Eddie McCluskey and his team, "Hello again Boys, nice to see you, you are always welcome here".

The reason for that is that I know any game between Wealdstone & Enfield is an attractive fixture, not only for loyal Supporters of both Clubs, but also for that grey area of general Football Supporter who looks in the paper and asks himself "Where shall I go tonight?" It also attracts Football League Scouts forever scouring the Country for good quality Players, and other Non-League Clubs looking for Players likely to be released, and last but not least I suspect possibly somebody might have travelled from the Colchester area, just to watch a game!

However, the reason I say to Enfield that they are always welcome here is that I know that the confrontation is always good value for money. I do not think I can ever recall a fixture between us that could be described as boring or lacking excitement whichever side is on top or victorious. I think that even a darts match between us would attract a good gate, and to say the least, would be spicy. Incidentally Eddie, what are you and the Boys doing after your game on Saturday? Just an idea!

At the time of going to press, we were slightly under strength with Alan Cordice, Mark Graves, Gary Donellan, Dennis Byatt, Nigel Johnson, and Robert Wainwright all receiving injury treatment from the magic hands of Arnie Reed and Dr. Goodchild, but I expect them all to be fit for the weekend.

Nice to see and hear you all here tonight, enjoy the game.

SUPPORTERS CLUB NEWS

GOOD evening to you all. Once again we extend a warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters of Enfield to Lower Mead as we play our third match in this FA Cup 1st Round tie. The last two matches have produced some firm football which is a credit to the Alliance Premier League. Both sets of supporters have experienced nail-biting moments as the advantage has switched between the two sides. The winners of this round will be away to Colchester United on Saturday 10 December and no doubt some of their spies will be scattered around the ground tonight.

Our Club Shop has a wide range of programmes on sale this evening including International, League and Non-League publications. Our usual raffle will also be running tonight - tickets only 5 for 10p with the draw for three prizes being made at haltime.

Our support in these FA Cup games has obviously helped the lads - let's continue it tonight in our usual enthusiastic manner.

UP THE STONES!

DAVE HEATH, Secretary
