ON THE BALL with Brian Hall

I hope that some of last Saturdays cup nerves will have disappeared by now and that we can play Eddie McCluskey's talented Enfield side with a little more confidence tonight.

We live and learn daily by experience and I learnt something in the Enfield game last Saturday, and something on Tuesday against Northwich. It is what I call "statistical gossip". I have heard it on the telephone, read it in newspapers, and naturally heard it in our own Club. Such gossip includes the terms "three games in hand", and "so and so got beat and did us a favour", and "goal difference could be better", etc., etc. The true facts are that such chatter shows an exceptional honest interest in our fortunes of the future, but if we look after only ourselves and concentrate, then we will not have to consider anyone else.

The second thing I learnt is that if our dressing room want to take the title, which I know they do then the operative word is "take", and not to rely on other sides being beaten. We must learn quickly to "take" chances and put them away as we did at the beginning of the season. We must "take" advantage of playing at home. We must "take" the championsjip away from other people. Frustration, near misses and mistakes count for nothing in this game, and neither does coming second.

My message to everybody at our Club, both on and off the field is let's work even harder now than ever, just for a couple of weeks, because to throw away 8 months hard graft goes against the grain with me.

How can you help us? Pop into the office and help us to sell tickets for Wembley, get posters out into the Town, or get your "local" to organise a coach party etc.

The players know the message about hard work but I shall be reminding and monitoring attitudes closely. We are already going to Wembley which is only the bonus or icing after the hard work of the league championship.

Sorry to sound unappreciative to everybody this evening but I repeat "heads down, get grafting - there is a job to be done".

BROUGHT BACK TO EARTH!

by Colin Pope

I suppose there were some people who thought that us winning the Gola League championship was now almost a foregone conclusion, in view of recent results of our nearest challengers, most of whom have been dropping unexpected points.

If so, however, they must have been brought down to earth with a bump on Tuesday night when, in the event, we had a bit of a struggle to salvage a point against a quick, good-looking Northwich Victoria side. Indeed, the visitors were only deprived of a shock three points by a miraculous clearance from the goal-line in the very last seconds of the match. I say 'clearance' although it did look from the stand more a case of a defender getting in the way rather than it being an intended clearance.

Mind you, we had our chances in the first half, but in the second, when we appeared to concentrate rather more on defence than going forward, it would not have come as too much of a shock had lively Northwich sprung a major surprise.

And you will not need any reminding that tonight's continued epic with Enfield will certainly not produce any 'easy' points, while on Saturday we travel to Nuneaton, who have the incredible record of being the only Gola League side to remain unbeaten at home all season, having played 19 games at the Manor Park! So even a share of the spoils there will be something!

Dropping a point at home certainly does not mean any alarm bells are ringing, but it should serve to remind everyone that we still have a lot to do and need to keep things in perspective. It's still going to be a long, hard grind, when your vocal support will be needed as never before! We all know that nothing can be taken for granted in this game.

Meanwhile plans are already now being made for our visit to Wembley on May 11th to play Boston United in the final of the FA Challenge Trophy (3pm). And believe me, there certainly is a lot to do, and think about!

Tickets will be ON SALE TONIGHT, and every day from now on in the Club Office, with seats priced at £3, £4 and £5. Standing tickets will cost £2.

You would be surprised how many people have already telephoned in for tickets and already the band wagon is starting to roll . . .

Incidentally, heartiest congratulations to the Supporters Club for having the foresight to arrange for a professional video recording, in colour, of last Saturday's semi-final against Enfield. Late on Monday night referee David Stevens, having heard about it, telephoned me to order a copy.

This has got to be a collectors' item, for some of us may not be around when the team next gets to Wembley!!

Finally, a reminder that we are at home to Kettering (yes, another tough one!) on Monday next, April 22nd, and not on our normal Tuesday.

CLUB SHOP NEWS

LOVELY TO BE THE HEROES AT LAST!

It has been quite a week with the jubilation of Saturday's Trophy Semi-Final victory over tonight's visitors, the novelty of Rugby League whilst acting as hosts for the Fulham v. Whitehaven match on Sunday, and now the chance to capitalise on our excellent League position. Whatever the outcome at Wembley on May 11th and in our challenge for the Gola League title, this season will go down as one of the greatest in the club's history and one that can bring a feeling of great pride to all connected with Wealdstone F.C. After suffering the indignity of having to explain why one supports a Non-League side and even having to repeat the name of one's club upon occasions throughout the year to those of less taste, it comes as a welcome change to be the main topic of conversation whether on one's doorstep with the postman or at work with colleagues showering praise and congratulation.

The new issue of "Pyramid" sold out on Saturday but the April edition of "West Middlesex Review" is now in stock at the Club Shop. Our fresh stock of club lapel badges are also on sale and these proved extremely popular with the Rugby League fans on Sunday who wanted souvenirs of their stay. Badge collectors will be interested to know that our newest creation will shortly arrive in the form of the official lapel badge of Barrow F.C. After our successful manufacture of our Trophy Final opponent's badge last year, we are hoping that the Barrow badge will prove as popular as the Boston United badge did last season.

Our other planned production for Nuneaton Borough has had to be abandoned for now as there appears to be a Civil War on between their Directors and the Supporters Club, which culminated in the "confiscation" of the Club Shop effected by the changing of the locks while the Shop Manager was away from the ground! I cannot guarantee that the position will be resolved in time for our visit to Manor Park on Saturday nor is there any truth in the rumour that I intend to camp in our Club Shop in case our profits are similarly deemed sufficiently poor to prompt a "take-over"!

It was interesting to see Saturday's guest columnist Phil Sugden also writing for the Metropolitan Police programme for a February fixture with Woking. After various light-hearted (?) duels with Phil in his Harrow Observer days over coverage of Wealdstone, I find it rather amusing to find alternative "Boys in Blue" obtaining the benefit of his services!

Lastly, a reminder of the 4th Annual Barnet Football Programme Fair that takes place next Sunday morning. Admission will be 25p on the day and the doors open at 11.00 a.m. The Fair will run until 2.30 p.m. and any Stones supporters will be very welcome if they make the short trip to Underhill.

Rugby League at Wealdstone

by Alan Clifton

FULHAM'S Rugby League fixture versus Whitehaven on Sunday 14th April at Lower Mead was a great success with an attendance of 796 fans who watched a very exciting game. Final score was a 10-10 draw in this first Rugby League fixture ever to be staged at Wealdstone.

There has of course been much discussion and argument amongst our football fans with a consensus of opinion that rugby football would destroy our pitch. I am pleased to be able to allay the fears of our critics and report that minimal damage to our playing surface occurred. In fact an inspection after the game left us pleasantly surprised with its excellent condition.

For those who have never seen Rugby League an invitation is extended to come along and watch Fulham's next home game here at Lower Mead on Sunday 28th April which promises to be another exciting match.

Another important point that is worth noting is the revenue that Rugby League can generate for Wealdstone, for I am sure that everybody will appreciate "We need the cash".

As organiser on behalf of the Directors, Players and Officials of Fulham R.L.F.C. may I publicly acclaim the standard of behaviour at Sunday's game which was excellent. May I also extend my thanks to George Perkins, Colin Saxby and Tony Lee for the professional way they prepared the pitch for Fulham after Saturday's F.A. Trophy Semi-Final against Enfield and of course for the fast turn around for our fixture against Northwich Victoria on Tuesday evening.

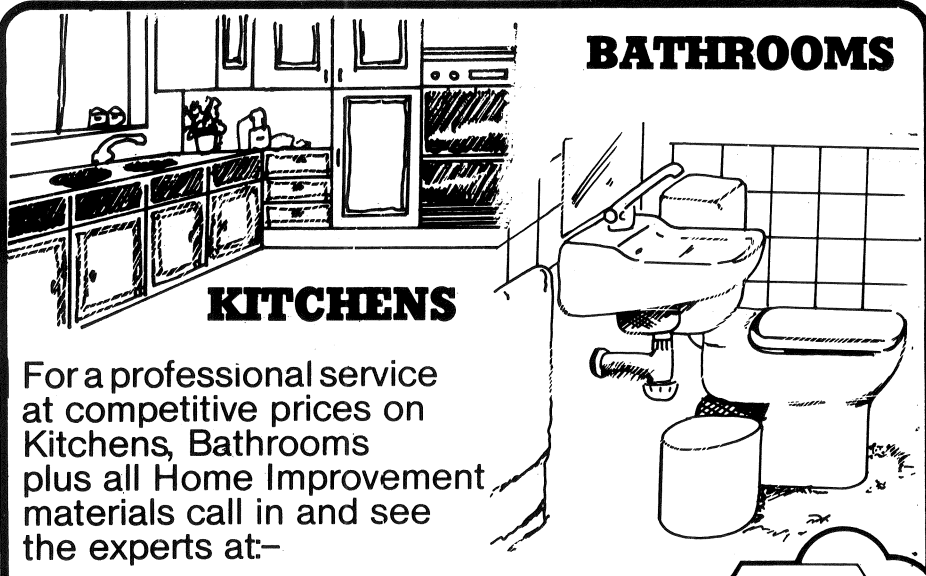

Well done lads you are a credit to our Club.

SUPPORTERS CLUB NOTES

F.A. TROPHY SEMI-FINAL VIDEO SEE THE 'STONES ON FILM!!

THE video of our Semi-Final, second-leg, match against Enfield will soon be available. We are hopeful that as many supporters as possible will want to purchase a copy – and keep a piece of 'Stones history in their video libraries. The video, professionally produced by a company commissioned especially for the occasion, is a full 90 minutes in length and includes the pre-match presentation and post-match, on-pitch jubilation!! Naturally the filming is in colour and captures the action and sounds of what was a tense, suspenseful struggle. PLEASE PLACE YOUR ORDER TONIGHT IN THE CLUB SHOP. The videos will be available in either VHS or Beta, are produced on high grade tape and presented in a superior quality case. The maximum price of the video will be £22.50, but price will ultimately depend on final numbers ordered. A large number of orders have already been placed – don't miss your chance!!
