Keeper thwarts Kingsbury

Kingsbury Town 0 Ware 1
KINGSBURY were unlucky not to take a point from this match on Tuesday after a second half siege of the Ware goal was thwarted by the heroics of the visitors' keeper Steve Ratcliffe.

Sad are Borough hit for six

Enfield 6 Harrow Borough 1
HARROW Borough were hit for six at Southbury Road on Tuesday and their leaky defence has now conceded 10 in two games to make it an unhappy start to the season, writes Tony Booth.

Borough to their credit fought back and they reduced the arrears in the 37th minute when Donnellan fouled Pye and Eamon O'Connor fired a 30 yard free kick past the defensive wall and into the bottom corner of the net.

Enfield hit the bar twice through Furlong and Donnellan and were further denied by Crompton but Borough should have reduced the arrears through Jeff Rowe who wasted a good scoring chance and Sawyers headed just over in front of an inviting goal.

Stones' Player of Year goes to St Albans

Margerrison is transferred

WEALDSTONE have transferred their unsettled midfielder John Margerrison to Vauxhall League club St Albans for "a considerable fee."

BY JOHN CUMFERT

He failed to show at Lower Mead for pre-season training and after his name was linked with St Albans, Wealdstone boss Alan Gane contacted the Hertfordshire club and made them aware that Margerrison was still contracted and that they would want a fee for the player. "But the matter has now been resolved and John is now a St Albans player," said Wealdstone secretary Peter Braxton.

League is to do away with regional divisions

THE Vauxhall League has confirmed significant changes to their divisional structure which means there will be no geographical split for Division Two clubs from season 1991/92.

will be promoted and relegated between each of the League's divisions.

More cups in Vauxhall League

THE Vauxhall League is to run three new cup competitions this season, sponsored by Lotcite UK, called the Lotcite Cup, Lotcite Trophy and Lotcite Youth Cup.

THE Premier Division, as previously, one club will be promoted to the GM Vauxhall Conference and in Division Three one club will be relegated to an appropriate feeder league.

Waugh gets Cadogan back from Chalfont

AFTER an absence of two seasons, former Wembley striker Lance Cadogan has returned to Vale Farm from Chalfont St Peter.

Wembley boss Tony Waugh signed Cadogan at the weekend and is hoping that his registration will go through in time for him to play in Saturday's home match against Molesey.

Wembley are in suicidal mood

Wembley 1 Aveley 2
WEMBLEY dragged themselves off the floor and then promptly tossed their chance of a point away, all within the space of five minutes at the end of this match on Tuesday night, writes John Comfort.

Wealdstone start with a win

Wealdstone 2 Wycombe Wanderers 0
STONES began their Capital League programme with a good win over Wycombe on Tuesday night, writes Graham Smith.
