Goal feast chance is missed

Andover of Wealdstone 2 WEALDSTONE were missing the injured Martin Blackler, Neil Cordice and John Shamshan, and the suspended David Venables but centrally accounted for a poor Andover side on Tuesday and should have won by a greater margin, writes Graham Gels.

For the second time in a week they were given an early goal start. This time it took just 83 seconds for Sean Adamson to head home his first goal of the season from a Dennis Drummy cross.

Stones increased the lead 12 minutes later when a Danny Stone kick found Adamson and although he was tackled, the loose ball fell to Colin Tate who hammered home from 12 yards.

Adamson should have scored in the 17th minute after a good run but he shot against the keeper's legs and put the ball over the bar.

Andover almost pulled one back a minute later when Wrixon got clear, but a timely tackle from Jim Hicks prevented him from scoring.

Three minutes into the second half Pettifer's throw was headed on by Hippolyte and the ball ran across the goalmouth with Pettifer just unable to get a vital touch. Then Drummy put Tate through but he shot at the keeper.

Adamson could have completed a hat-trick midway through the half. He cleverly beat three defenders and then tried to chip the keeper but his shot went over the bar, then he was put through with just the keeper to beat but he delayed his shot and Wilson's tackle robbed him.

Finder's best back pass put Adamson clear but he shot at the keeper on a night when Stones should have won by a far greater margin.

Wealdstone: Terryngton, Pettifer, Pearson, Adamson, Hicks, Gyles (Shaw), Drummy, Lovgrove (Pape), Hedge, Hippolyte, Tate.

Win for Kingsbury

GOALS from Lawrence Holmes and Tony Richards on Tuesday saw Kingsbury Town to a 2-1 win over Rickwood Heath who were reduced to 10 men by the sending off of Paul Casswell.

Wealdstone set to sue club trustee

By John Comfort

WEALDSTONE FC are to take legal action for damages against club trustee Les Hobbs following his refusal to sign the papers required to ratify the return of the club's half share of Vicarage Road back to Watford.

The deal, which was agreed by an overwhelming majority of club members at an extraordinary general meeting in January, should have been heard in court on Monday but was adjourned until March 31 to enable Mr Hobbs to consider his position. His fellow trustee Toby Jackson has already signed the documents but it now seems likely that the deal will be approved without Mr Hobbs' signature.

Said David Buchler, of the club's administrators Buchler-Phillips: "I called a special meeting of members of Wealdstone to consider the proposed agreement with Watford. The members, who had their own separate legal advice, voted unanimously in favour of the deal and instructed me to proceed. There was only one vote against. That was Mr Hobbs. Mr Hobbs acts as a bare trustee for the club and his obligations are to do the club's bidding. Money, probably in the region of £15,000-£20,000, will have to be spent in legal costs in a further application to ask the court to intercede so that the necessary approvals can be obtained. A writ is also being prepared for damages and consequential loss against Mr Hobbs."

The club was said to be on the brink of closure this week in the wake of the situation they had found themselves in. Chairman David Pollock said that the board of directors and administrators was now faced with the decision of whether to close the club down with immediate effect to safeguard funds for litigation, or whether to keep going.

"It is extremely unlikely we will be allowed to keep going as we will be incurring more costs to Watford FC," he said.

Closure would mean Wealdstone losing its place in the Beazer Homes League.

Mr Hobbs is convinced that the club's salvation lies in accepting a £500,000 takeover bid by Martin Nixon of Countywide Markets Ltd which was initially rejected by the Wealdstone board of directors two months ago.

It was said this week that guarantees had been sought from Mr Nixon's consortium and that a sum of cash is said to have been deposited with a solicitor. But on Wednesday there was no indication that any takeover was about to go ahead.

Said Mr Pollock: "I have received indirect approaches, but nothing direct. Neither have the club's solicitors nor administrators. If someone wants to put £500,000 into Finners' account for the use of the football club, I suspect that both I and the board will have no problem in accepting this and relinquishing control."

"However, this club has been full of rumours of all kinds over the last few years and until that money is lodged, the board, the administrators and the club's solicitors will continue to make decisions as they see fit for the club and not dependent upon a possibility."

Commented Mr Buchler: "I have said to anybody, I would be more than delighted to have considered any proposition relating to Wealdstone that puts physical cash on the table. I am not aware that there is any proposition that will put half a million pounds of cash into Wealdstone's bank account."

Criticism over his actions have been heaped upon Mr Hobbs from many club members this week, but he remains unrepentant over his actions and over his support for a new regime to take over the ailing club.

"If I'd signed those documents, Wealdstone would have automatically been finished," he said. "There's no way I'm signing away Wealdstone's future, I'm damned if I will."

Ridout steers Borough to final

Harrow Borough 5 Northwood 0 JOHN Ridout scored a hat-trick in 18 minutes as Borough reached the final of the Middlesex Senior Cup on Tuesday for the first time in 10 years when they triumphed over neighbours Northwood, writes Tony Booth.

Creating many chances in the early stages, the hosts had gone close through Jackman (twice), Shaw and Engwell before taking a 15th minute lead.

Jackman's cross was headed down at the far post by Keith Cooper and Steve Conroy open round to fire a shot across goal and inside the far post.

Borough continued to dominate near goal, going close through Shaw and Prutton, while Cooper saw his volley cleared off the line.

Northwood had much possession but only really threatened twice, Vincent seeing one shot parried wide and another blocked by the dependable Andy Pape, whose assured handling had given Borough such a solid foundation.

After the break, Conroy saw his back-header cleared off the line and Prutton clipped just wide before Northwood conceded a "killer" goal in the 71st minute. Keeper Lavender and his full back Nolan appeared to forget the backpass law and when Conroy cleverly dispossessed the keeper, Ridout shot home.

Six minutes later a picture move saw

Pape, May, Conroy and Engwell combine to set up Ridout whose first shot was cleared off the line but he fired home the rebound.

Gerry Solomon had a cross shot palmed away but found the net after 83 minutes when he headed in Prutton's cross following a fine through ball from Ridout to make it 4-0.

In the last minute Prutton's pass put Ridout through to round Nolan and Lavender before shooting home to complete the scoring and his hat-trick.

Harrow Borough: Pape, May, Engwell, Jackson, Bennett, Giles, Prutton, Cooper, Stewart (Gutman), Conroy (Nolan), Ridout. Other subs: Taylor, Anderson.

Shields goal gives Wembley a replay

Wembley 2 Yeading 2

WEMBLEY kept their hopes of Middlesex Cup glory alive on Tuesday thanks to Paul Shields' equaliser early in the second half of this semi-final clash at Vale Farm, writes John Coatsworth.

In a match of fluctuating fortunes, the Lions struck first in the 18th minute. Andy O'Brien crossed from the left and when Bobby Hutchinson nodded it down, Peter Shodeinde drove home from close range.

The lead only lasted five minutes, then Jon Deaton headed down Steve Cordery's corner and Steve Cross lashed in Yeading's equaliser.

A fine save from Jeff Farmer prevented Alan Andren from giving the visitors the lead with a blistering drive, but the keeper was caught out just before the break when Leo Charles lobbed over him from the right hand side of the penalty area to put Yeading in the driving seat at half time.

However, it took Wembley only three minutes of the second half to get back on level terms. Mark Witter's cross was only flapped at by keeper McKenzie, Shodeinde chested the ball down and skipper Paul Shields was on hand to blast it home.

After that it was anyone's game and although Yeading came closest to settling it with Byron Walton's glancing header that went narrowly wide, a draw was a fair result.

The replay will take place at Yeading this Tuesday, with Harrow Borough waiting to face the eventual winners in the final. Wembley: Farmer, Fisher, Clark, O'Brien, Shields, Headland, Alan Smith, Shodeinde, Pape, Hutchinson. Witter: Morse, Andy Smith, Bennett, Hughes.

Bans keep Ryan, Pye on sidelines

MARK Pye and Pat Ryan complete their suspensions on Saturday and will miss Harrow Borough's away match at championship chasing St Albans City, but they will be available for selection for Tuesday's home game against Enfield.

Martin St Hilaire and Kenton Campbell are still sidelined, but manager George Borg has no other injury problems.

Luc Enderby is added to the Wembley squad for their tough away game at second in the table Dorking. He missed the midweek match with Yeading due to being cup tied. Jon Conroy is still out with a knee injury.

Martin Blackler, John Shamshan and Neil Cardiac are all injured and doubtful for Wealdstone's match at Erith. Stones will again be without the suspended David Venables. Richard Lovegrove, on loan from Theale is in the reckoning for a place.

Leslie Thompson is suspended for an accumulation of bookings and misses Edgeware Town's matches at Tilbury on Saturday and Maiden Vale on Monday.

Kingsbury have no injury problems for their away match at Camberley on Saturday. Rayners Lane make the long journey to Cinderford on Saturday. Cinderford have games in hand on Lane and could go above them, so a hard game is likely. Lane will still be without Paul Abell and Danny Mills. Good news is that Neil Owen is back in training after his groin injury.

Wembley: Farmer, Fisher, Clark, O'Brien, Shields, Headland, Alan Smith, Shodeinde, Pape, Hutchinson. Witter: Morse, Andy Smith, Bennett, Hughes.
