Dyson is Kenton's Player of the Year

WICKET keeper/batsman Mark Dyson was named as Kenton Cricket Club's Player of the Year at their annual steak and kidney dinner held on Friday evening.

Dyson received a second trophy as one of five Kenton players who achieved 1000 runs for the season. The others were Mark Elkington, Tim Holton, Mark Giffin and Gary Underwood.

Also honoured for his run scoring prowess was veteran club chairman Alan Digby who remarkably passed the 20,000 runs landmark for the club during the season. The Cabbie Green Trophy for Clubman of the Year was won by Neil Levington while the Most Improved Player award went to Sunny Sharma. Jamie Herd was the Colt of the Year.

Lions put their shirt on Paul for a replay

Wembley 2 Marlow 2
PAUL Shirt's coolly struck late penalty in extra time earned depleted Wembley a deserved draw against Premier Division Marlow in Tuesday night's Diadora League Cup tie, writes Richard Marklewicz.

Within 30 seconds of his debut, Williams, a late replacement for Jeff Fanner, rushed out of his area and up-ended Tim Buzaglo, who had raced clear. A less lenient official would have produced a red card. Fortunately, Williams was shown a yellow one.

In fact Williams was one of the main reasons for maintaining Wembley's interest in the competition, won last season by Marlow. He had an excellent game in goal, but overall it was Wembley's battling all round performance that enabled them to have a second bite at their Premier Division opponents.

Marlow scored first in the sixth minute. Garfield Blackman burst clear after Lloyd Powell had completely missed the ball, and rounded the lunging Williams before squaring for David Lay to stab home at the far post.

Kingsbury draw a blank

Kingsbury Town 0 Leighton Town 0
KINGSBURY had the better of Tuesday night's clash with Leighton but they were unable to conjure up a goal that would have rubber stamped their superiority, writes John Comfort.

Wasps look to get back in title race

WASPS face Bristol at Sudbury in the Courage League on Saturday knowing that a win is vital if they are to stay in touch with the championship race, writes Alan Bodenhamer.

Despite losing against Bath and Leicester last month, Wasps are confident that a good run of results up to Christmas will keep them well placed.

to full strength and all their injury worries are clear, so the matches against Bristol, Northampton and Orrell can be looked forward to.

The main beneficiaries of the two week break from league action have been Alan Buzza and Chris Oti. Both have recovered from early season injury and Steve Shortland, who has impressed coach Rob Smith in the recent run of friendly matches, plays

New boys lead Stones on five goal cup romp

Hanwell Town 1 Wealdstone 5
WEALDSTONE'S new boys tore Hanwell Town apart in an excellent second half performance in this Middlesex Senior Cup preliminary round replay on Tuesday to earn a tilt at Hayes at home in the first round, writes Graham Smith.

Mellor clear and he shot past Riordan to regain the lead for Stones. The game now belonged to the visitors and Dermot Drummy beat the offside trap with an excellent pass to send Mellor through to complete his hat-trick. Seven minutes later Drummy was again the provider, putting Kent through to beat Riordan and score his first goal for Stones.

Blain is new boss at Town

KINGSBURY Town have appointed Peter Blain as their new manager.

Borough's brave ten earn second chance

Theme Utd 4 Harrow Borough 4
IF it's goals you want to see, come along to a Harrow Borough match, writes Tony Booth.

Wednesday December 1. The match was played at the hosts, based two divisions below Borough, took a 13th minute lead when Mott ran onto a Sweekes pass to shoot home.

However, after 89 minutes, Court's pass gave Andy Pruton the chance to twist and shoot from 25 yards an accurate drive that gave Mayhew no chance. Then three minutes into injury time Shaw's corner was powerfully headed home by Dave Bensted to force extra time.
